Rails held within narrow bounds most of the time, but hardened on assurances from Washing ton that the future of the transportations lies with Congress.
Peace industrials, especially leathers and tobaccos, were favored, and metals also rose superior to trade conditions, but United States Steel failed to make appreciable headway, in spite of the hopeful views entertained by leaders of that industry.

Toronto, Feb. 28.—Board of trade quotations:

The sensitive state of the local money market was evidenced by a temporary flurry in call loans to 7 per cent, the maximum quotation for this class of accommodation in almost two years. In well-informed financial quarters the belief prevails that time money will remain relatively scarce until the consummation of the Victory Loan.
