In yesterday's market Vacuum Gar was one of the outstanding features of was one of the outstanding features of strength, advancing seven points from the previous high at 65. It closed at 72 bid, 75 asked. A big market is being made for this issue, which is a comparative newcomer. New York interests seem to be willing to take up all stock offered on the local market, and considerably, higher prices are being talked on the street for it.

Davidson in the Porcupines advanced to a new high at 52 1-2 on good public buying. This property is being energetically developed and gives promise of becoming a big producer.

McIntyre was active to the points of the producer of the pro

McIntyre was again in the spot light McIntyre was again in the spot light, the stock showing considerable strength, selling from 162 to 166. Strength was displayed by the old market leader thruout. Insiders were reported to be taking the major part of the stock which came on the market, and this is taken as an indication of another big move.

There was a good demand for Hollinger, the stock gaining a little ground to $6.80. Dome Extension was quiet at $1 to $11-2, while Dome Lake eased off to $6. A small lot of Big Dome changed hands at $24.75. Jupiter sold up a point to 28. Newray held firm around 76. West Dome Consolidated was under some selling pressure and yielded a point, going back to $3.
