The exhibition of sculpture just closed at the Art Museum in Grange road has been succeeded by a small but very interesting loan exhibit of pictures by the late John A. Fraser, R.C.A. The water colors of English landscape must be seen to be fully appreciated. Their possessors are very much to be envied, but that is as far as one can get, as Mr. Fraser's work never comes on the market. The pictures will be on view until Feb. 19.
