PRIVILEGE

MR. MACKEY—"BUGGING" OF OFFICE

Mr. Elmer M. MacKay (Central Nova): Mr. Speaker, I rise on a question of privilege. It is not very often that I rise in this chamber on a question of privilege, but in view of the revelations that have come today and previously, I think I have a matter which affects the privileges of all members of the House. As a matter of fact, I learned about it when I was called out to the lobby.

Because of some of the circumstances, I thought it prudent to retain the services of an electronics expert to check my office, and I have been told that there is a live recording device hidden in one of the chairs in my office, a device that is fully operative. I thought this might be of some interest to the House, particularly in view of the assurances—

● (1512)

An hon. Member: How about that?

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. The hon. member raises a matter which is of great moment and concern. The matter will be investigated forthwith by officials of the House. That is the least I can undertake at this time. Until such time as any further information may come to light with respect to this occurrence, I can only assure the House that I will personally undertake to investigate this matter with the fullest vigour at my command.

An hon. Member: Fox is not surprised.
