By a Staff Reporter. EXHIBITION PARK, Sept. 11 .- Weather conditions that were almost ideal, except that a light east wind was blowing down the track, greeted the opening of the athletic day program at the Exhibition. The track was in rather bad condition early in the day, but after it had been rolled several times it appeared to be fairly fast. The conditions under-1 foot did not look to be conducive to the breaking of records, but after the repair gang had completed their work the time for the various races should have been fairly good. Thursday's rain did not do the track any good, making the going a the track any good, making the going a trifle heavy. The bright sun did its part in the morning, altho its appearance was somewhat belated.

The grand stand was very nearly filled to capacity to witness the performances of some of the greatest athletes the world has been able to produce. Uncle Sam's athletes from coast to coast were on hand to show the Canadian boys what they could uo. Some of the men were world beaters, who have made records fly when they got into competition. A. S. Robinson of Detroit, who performed so well in the state of the son of Detroit, who performed so wen in the century dash last year, was present again to hook up with Roy. Morse of New Yora, and the other speed marvels. Harry McGavin was conceded to be the best local boy entered, altho Jack Moriarity of West End was there to give him a run for the money.

Hans Ohrt. the world's champion cydist, arrived in Toronto on Friday, and the argument which Gord. McMillan will put up should be a wonderful exhibition. The famous Finn, Hannes Kolehmainen, save liberal handicaps in the three-mile race, and, with Jimmie Dellow and Percy Wyer of the Monarchs, 50 seconds out in front, the two Toronto gallopers should finish in the money. Wer of the Monarcis, of the Monarcis, in the two Toronto gallopers should finish in the money.

With no less than 42 cyclists entered in the three-mile handicap and with the world's champion, Hans Ohrt, on scratch, this promises to be the feature event of the day, altho George Goulding and his Central Y. walkers, are due to put up a great exhibition of the heel and toe art in the two-mile handicap, with Jake Freeman 38 seconds to the good, and the limit men spread out to two minutes and a half.

Whether Jack Tresidder would be able to show when up beside the world beaters in the 1000-yard invitation was the guestion the athletic fans were asking themselves as they filed thru the turnstilles into the grand stand. The general impression among the sporting experts was that the Canadians would do as well against the American cracks as they have done in previous years, when some of the stars have had their colors lowered by the local boys.

TRANSATLANTIC RACE FOR SEA-GOING YACHTS

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.-A race across the Atlantic Ocean between the schooner Atlantic, holder of the transatlantic record, and the Katoura, holder of the Cape May and Brenton Reef Cups, is in prospect. The Atlantic is now owned by James C. Brady. Robert E. Todd is the owner of Katoura. In 1905 the Atlantic won the Kaiser's Cup, making the trip from Sandy Hook to the Lizard in 12 days, 4 hours, and 3 minutes. The Katoura sailed from New York to Stockholm in 1910.

Montreal Gazette: In the ordinary course of events, the schedule meeting of the Quebec Rugby Football Union should take place on Saturday, but owing to the unsettled conditions President George Trenholme has requested Secretary R. E. Melville to send letters to all of the clubs to ascertain their feeling regarding the suspending of the schedule during the coming season.

The president is personally in favor of calling off the regular series this fall, but the course that will be followed will depend entirely on the stand taken by the clubs composing the union. These are Montreal, Westmount and Shamrock Clubs in this section, while Ottawa II., Gananoque and Brockville compose Section B of the senior series.
