OPPOSITION READY TO SHOW WEAKNESS OF FISCAL POLICY

Recent Stringency and Its Effects Traceable to Mismanagement on the Part of the Gov-

OTTAWA, Nov. 30 .- The real business of session will begin on Monday when R. R. Hall (Peterboro), and Lanctot (Richelieu), will move and second address in reply to seech from

It is expected that debate will last several days and that opposition will take advantage of present rise in fortimes of party to give government a

One of the chief subjects for discussion will undoubtedly be the present stringency in money market. On both sides there is disposition to avoid causing any mistrust, of banking institutions of the country, but the finance minister will be criticized for failing to take advantage of the great presperity of the country in the past eight or nine years of curtail expen-ditures and be able to meet the pres-

How It Has Happened. How It Has Happened.

It will be shown that the situation is largely the outcome of a fiscal policy which has allowed the balance of trade to run against us. For instance sit; years ago there was a balance of six millions in our favor, to-day our trade returns show an excess of imports over exports amounting to 10% million dollars.

With money pouring out of the country at such a rate there must inevitably be a contraction of business activities.

the opposition will put up their chief financial critics to attack the government on this question and during the debate it is probably that Mr. Fester and Mr. Cockshutt with others ill be heard.

At least that is the bellet in the lobbies since the government has invited the discussion, by inserting a paragraph in the speech touching the matter of money stringency.

The discussion is bound to take a wide range, but nothing will be said in criticism of action of banks.

ConstitutionalDemocrat Too Vigorous in His Denunciation of the Government.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 30.-The easion of the douma, held to-day, which was devoted to the continuation of the debate on the declaration of the government, presented by Premier Stolypin yesterday, broke up in a riot. The reactionaries assaulted Fedor Roditichoff, the orator of the Constitutional Democrats, and attempted to drag him from the tribune in order to put an end to his vitriolic attack on the gov-

Premier Stolypin and other members of the cabinet witnessed the demonstration from the ministerial box, but they departed when it became evident that the howling mob had no intentien of allowing the session to proceed.

M. Roditicheff, during the course of a ringing speech, in which he was constantly interrupted by applause or jeers, was eulogizing the hundreds of victims of drumhead court-martial, and when he referred to the officials of the government as hangmen a hundred respective. when he referred to the officials of the government as hangmen, a hundred reactionaries led by Vladimir Purishkovitch, Monarchist, and two priests, yelling like Indians, stormed the tribune President Khomyakoff, after ringing his bell vainly for order, abandoned the chair and declared the sitting closed.

The Constitutional Democrats and Social Democrats charged to the rescue of M. Roditicheff, who was being roughly handled. They formed a phalanx around him and bore him, still shouting defiance, to one corner of the hall.

The tumult continued for fully half an heur, until the party leaders succeeded in withdrawing their followers to the committee fooms for consultation. Liberals Hold Nominat-

Peterboro is Badly Walloped --- The Parkdale Canoe Club Are Now the Junior Champions.

MONTREAL, Nov. 30 .- Peterboro and Montreal met here to-day for the Canadian Rugby championship. There was a moderate breeze from the east. Montreal won the toss and chose to play against the sun and with the wind. The return of Peterboro's kick-oft by Russell was brought back because Montreal forwards forgot to give five yards. Peterboro had the ball at Montreal's 25-yard line. The first scrimmage resulted in a fumble, but Montreal's wings were persistently off-side, and Peterboro was given a free kick. College beofted to the line, Russell fumbled, and the ball rolled away and crossed the goal. Peterboro followed up, and Hurtubise fell on the oval for a try, which Colledge converted. Peterboro 6. Montreal 0. Colledge returned kick-off, but the forwards were off on the 3-yard rule and the ball was given to Montreal 20 yards from Peterboro's line. On the first scrimmage Montreal worked a criss-cross, Gordon to Russell to Gordon, and the Montrealer ran the distance for a try, which was not converted. Peterboro 6, Montreal 5. The return kick-off brought the play to midfield with Peterboro in possession. There was a delay to allow Peterboro's halfback to get his wind.

During the intermission it was seen that Ernie Hamilton and Jimmie Craig were setting a football fashion, being comforted by warm woollen gloves. On exchange of punts, O'Brien kicked to touch. Montreal's ball. Craig ran 25 yards, slipped and fell. On the third down Stinson booted, kicking the ball over the dead-ball line for a point, which event the second dead. yards. Peterboro was on the defensive, and was compelled to kick. Colledge booted to centre. Stinson picked up and went 50 yards thru a broken field, and was nalied just outside the line. Kelly bucked for a try on first scrimmage, which Molson falled to convert. Montreal 11. Peterboro 6. Montreal did not give yards on Russell's return, and the ball was given to Peterboro. Colledge kicked over the line, and Russell picked up and kicked clear. Prompt following up by Montreal wings forced Peterboro back, and play was in the visitors' territory. Hurtubise ran 20 yards and was taken down by Craig. Colledge fumbled on the first scrimmage and Lessor got the ball. On the first scrimmage Gordon passed to Russell, the back, who gave it to Craig, and the latter went 49 yards for a try, which Molson converted Montreal 17. Peterboro 6. A fumble by Colledge gave Stephens a chance The lanky wing dribbled and the ball bounded on and on, finally going over Peterboro's line, where Kelly dropped on it for a try, Molson converted.
