EX'D.

Ottawa, June 13, 1938.

Gentlemen,-

Dues on Timber,
Gibson Band.

We have for acknowledgement your letter of the 4th instant with which you enclosed cheque for $500.00 as payment on account of the outstanding arrears in connection with timber dues on your former license No. 177, Gibson Reserve.

This payment has been credited to your account and leaves arrears outstanding of $922.45, to which must be added interest on the arrears outstanding from December 1st, 1937. As this account has been outstanding for some considerable time we shall expect a further remittance at an early date.

Receipt No. 189 is enclosed.

Yours truly,

L. W. McCutcheon
