YOUR children are sure sprouting out of the neighbors' windows. Realization that the kid days were over and adolescence in sight made many a mother and father stop and think. Here are days when great care is required.

Specialists have, at one time and another, urged parents to encourage children at this period to eat the following foods:

NAVY blue rep, very simply tailored, makes an ideal dress for wear in the early fall.

The model above is a two-piece affair. The skirt has a kick pleat to the front for fullness, and the overblouse is made with a graceful V slit at the front and arranged to button at either hip so that the finishing hand fits tight to the figure.

The open neck, finished with a hand which extends into narrow ribbons that drop at the front has found great favor this season.
