

RECENT WEDDINGS

Weyland-Blissett.
Miss Helen Leanne Blissett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Blissett, formerly of St. John, was united in marriage to Wendell V. Weyland, recently, at the home of her parents in Malden, Mass.

Kierstead-Haslett.
At the Fairville Baptist parsonage last night at 8 o'clock, Rev. C. T. Clark united in marriage Miss Pearl Alice Haslett, of Whitehead, King's county, and Ralph Ervine Kierstead, of Fairville. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Edna Haslett and the groom was attended by Maurice Garvin. All good wishes for their future happiness were extended to the bride and groom. They will reside in the Manawagonish Road.

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Rosenfeld.
Many friends of Louis Rosenfeld, general sales manager for the Famous Players Film Service, Limited, of Toronto, will regret to learn of the death of his mother, which occurred in Toronto as the result of an automobile accident. Mr. Rosenfeld was in the Maritime Provinces, having gone to Moncton from here yesterday, accompanied by A. B. Cass, local manager, and a relative. They left yesterday afternoon for Toronto.

William Henry Warnock.
William Henry Warnock, formerly of St. John, died on May 5 at Malden, Mass., aged eighty-two years.

Arthur Beers.
Arthur Beers, formerly of Stanley, York County, died in the Calais hospital on Tuesday night, following a blow over the heart with a baseball on Monday while he was practicing at Milltown. The body was looked after by the Knights of Columbus and will be taken to his home in Stanley for burial. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Minnie Beers. Mrs. P. Kinsella of St. John is an aunt.

Mrs. S. E. Alward.
The death of Mrs. Sarah E. Alward occurred yesterday at her home in Sussex, at the age of sixty-nine years, following an illness of about five years. She is survived by one son, H. V. Alward of Tacoma, Wash.; four daughters, Miss Frances P. Alward, secretary of the St. John Retail Merchants Association, and Miss Louise Alward of St. John, and Miss Emilie Alward and Miss Harriet Alward of Sussex; two brothers, H. C. Keith of Kallispell,
