Do you know

How many men's barber shops there are in the maritime provinces? Neither do we—but we do know that there is only one exclusive

Children's Haircutting Shop

and that is right here at Oak Hall. A shop with large mirrors, a tall little chair, made especially for kiddies up to ten years of age, an electric hair dryer, a freshly sterilized brush and comb for every child, and an expert barber, trained at the famous Filene Shops, Boston, who does all kinds of Plain, Dutch and other Fancy Cuts for

35 Cents

Call in the mornings, when the demands on the barber's time are not so great—an afternoon visit often means a fairly long wait.

N. H. S. Field Day.
The members of the Natural History Society held its last field day Saturday afternoon at "Camp Nature," the beautiful summer home of Mr. and Mrs. W. McIntosh and A. Gordon Leavitt at Leavitt. After exploring the woods and some of the delights of Camp Nature, supper was served and speeches and readings formed part of the evening programme. The following persons took part: Dr. J. Roy Campbell, president of the society; Mr. Leavitt, Mr. & Sons, building contractors.

McIntosh and J. A. Estey, while Hon. R. J. Ritchie moved a vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh and Mr. Leavitt for their hospitality, which was seconded by Mrs. W. E. Raymond and A. H. Wetmore, also spoke on it. Miss Amelia Green contributed a reading.

Charles Dunlavy of Fair Vale was welcomed home yesterday after a lengthy period of service overseas. Before going overseas, where he served with the engineers, he was employed with I. Drury and Sons, building contractors.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Sergt. Kenneth Webber, who recently returned from overseas, and Miss Edna F. Harris were married on Sept. 20 at St. Stephen.

At the Deer Park Presbyterian church, Toronto, Miss Jean Thomson, daughter of Mrs. R. T. Leavitt of St. John, was married to Gilbert S. Hart, formerly of Halifax but now residing in Toronto. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Rochester last Wednesday. The bride was given away by her brother, Robert Douglas Leavitt.

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. James Craigie.

The death of Mrs. James Craigie occurred at her residence, 51 Harrison street, on Saturday after a long illness. Mrs. Craigie was thirty-three years of age and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brown, this city. She leaves, besides her husband and parents, one son, Spencer, and one daughter, Helen, also two sisters, Nita and Mildred, and two brothers, George W. of Fredericton, and Elting, of this city.

The funeral will take place from her late residence on Monday at 2.30 o'clock.

Daniel E. Richards.

Fredericton, Sept. 20.—Word was received today of the death at Campbellton, of Daniel E. Richards, president of the Richards Manufacturing Company, aged fifty-three years, who was one of the best known business men in New Brunswick. About seven years ago when the Richards Manufacturing Company was organized, he was elected president and carried on his duties until last spring, when he was taken ill. He went to the United States and consulted specialists, but nothing could be done. During the summer he seemed to regain some of his old time health, but early last month his condition became serious and Mrs. Daniel Richards, R. N., of this city, was called to Campbellton to nurse him.

The deceased was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Richards, of Campbellton, is survived by his wife, two sons, George and Ted, two daughters, Kathleen and Gwendolyn, and four sisters, Mrs. Max Moore, of Campbellton; Mrs. James Evans, of Campbellton; Mrs. Thomas Roy, of New Brunswick Centre (Mass.); and Mrs. Chas. Summers, of Moncton.

William A. Burns.

The many friends of William A. Burns will regret to hear of his death which occurred on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Burns was well known in the North End. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife, Mrs. Thomas, of St. John, and Charles, of New Hampshire, and five sisters, Mrs. H. R. Stephenson, New Hampshire; Mrs. James King, Waterville (N.Y.); Mrs. John Gallagher, Roxbury (Mass.); and Mrs. Vincent Daley and Miss Jennie Burns of this city. The funeral will be held on Tuesday from his mother's residence, 56 Elm street.

William Crosby.

L. G. Crosby of this city has been in Yarmouth, N. S., attending the funeral of his father, William Crosby, who died last week at his home in Milton Highlands, aged eighty-nine years. He was a shoe manufacturer and one of the most prominent business men of Yarmouth county, and was held in general esteem. Four daughters and four sons survive. Burial took place on Friday last with services conducted by Rev. A. T. Dykeman, of Zion United Baptist church.

Captain Dougal McNeven.
Aged seventy-five years, Captain Dougal McNeven passed away at his home, Catalano, N. S., last week with cancer. He was well known in shipping circles.

Mrs. T. W. Musgrave, formerly Miss Matilda Olive, daughter of Mrs. I. J. Olive of West St. John, is dead at Hoguano, Washington.

IN THE CHURCHES

Bishop Schofield of Vancouver delivered an impressive sermon on the forward movement of the Anglican church before a large congregation in the Mission church last evening. During the course of his remarks he said that the missionary spirit of the clergy were a shame to the church and their message of love was shouted to deaf ears. This forward movement, his lordship said, called for a new consecration of the rank and file of the church as well as the conversion of those without her fold.

In St. David's church last evening Rev. Mr. Farquhar, who is supplying in the absence of Rev. J. A. MacKeigan, gave an interesting address, dealing with experiences while serving as chaplain with the British forces in Siberia. Mr. MacKeigan is reported to be improving in health and will likely return to the city this week.

In Knox church at both services yesterday the speaker was Rev. Captain Thomas Harrison, formerly chaplain with the 5th Canadian Artillery in France. In the evening his sermon was based on the text "I have glorified Thee on earth; I have finished the work which Thou gavest me to do." His sermons proved of much interest. Captain Harrison is rooming at 40 Horsfield street, where he will be pleased to meet old friends.

A fortnight's renewal of the mission given a year ago was commenced yesterday in St. Peter's church, North End, by Rev. Father Sholley, Coghlan and McElrath, the last a former workman of that parish. This week's services are exclusively for the women, while next week will be for men only. The services yesterday drew very large crowds. Rev. J. J. McCaskill, who served as major with the Montreal Highlanders in France in the chaplain's services, was heartily welcomed yesterday at St. Andrew's church, where he preached an eloquent sermon, taking the text "For He loveth our nation and built us a synagogue." Major McCaskill was formerly pastor of St. Matthew's church, Douglas avenue, but went overseas as chaplain of the 78th Highlanders, Montreal. While in the old country he was engaged for some time in "stumping" Wales and Scotland on missions for the British government.

Rev. Capt. W. F. Parker returned to Sussex on Wednesday after some time in Toronto, where he is undergoing treatment for wounds received at Etaples. While serving in a base hospital there he was wounded during an air raid. He is still lame but is recovering.

Because his wife testified her husband used his auto for joy-rides with other women, Warner Simpson, Milwaukee, was told by the court to sell the car and make up. He did.

WELCOMED HOME

Some thirty men for discharge in this district arrived in the city last evening from overseas, having returned home aboard the S. S. Regina, landing at Halifax. They were heartily greeted at the depot, quite a crowd being assembled, and a brief speech of welcome and appreciation was made by R. E. Armstrong, secretary of the board of trade, who as a member of the citizens' committee was among those awaiting their return. Others with him were Miss Skinner, A. O. Skinner, S. Herbert Mayes, and Charles Robinson, secretary N. B. returned soldiers' commission. The men were taken to the armory in a large military motor. They represented many different units and varying lengths of overseas service.

Among the soldiers returning home yesterday was Private Harold Sheehan, the last of four brothers to return from overseas, sons of Cornelius Sheehan, who is employed with the Crowley Trunk Company here. When only fifteen years of age young Sheehan enlisted with the 11th Battalion, serving an older age and passing the doctors' test. Finding that the 69th Battalion was to go across first he transferred to that unit and went with it to England later going to France where he was wounded. He has seen considerable service.

Chief of police at Macon, Ga., charged with sympathizing with rioting union strikers, was ordered to resign.
