FIRST GAME OF THE SERIES TOMORROW

Vaughn and Mays or Ruth Likely Pitchers in Opening Game

Chicago, Sept. 2—The Chicago Nationals returned from Pittsburgh today and began preliminary practice for the opening game of the world's series here tomorrow with the Boston Red Sox, champions of the American League.

After a heart-to-heart talk with his men, Manager Mitchell ordered them to report at the American League in the afternoon for a practice session, in which the Cubs will acquaint themselves with the lights and shadows of the grounds.

Charles A. Comiskey, president of the Chicago Americans, present world champions, has invited Manager Mitchell to hold a practice session at the grounds on the arrival of the Red Sox, probably late today.

Jim Vaughn, a big southpaw, has been picked by Chicago sport writers as the probable choice of Manager Mitchell for the opening game, while the baseball rattle guesses that Boston's right-hander, Carl Mays, will start for the Red Sox with Ruth as second choice.
