WORDS OF THANKS

Mrs. Marmaduke Ritchie desires to thank her friends who were so kind to her in her recent bereavement.

An Easter tea and sale will take place in the Sunday school of St. John the Bap-tist church, Broad street, on Wednesday evening next, April 10; admission and tea cook instantial harmous is requested.

With the first day of summer only a few weeks distant, the prospect of standing in an overheated kitchen, over a bot tange, is by no means pleasant to the busy housewife who longs for an easier solution of that ever present problem of "something to cat." That it is actually possible to cook the meals quickly and yet spend but the smallest portion of the day in the kitchen, will be proven at still another series of demonstrations of cooking with One Dollar Gas, which will begin within the next few days, at the showrooms of the St. John Railway Company.

Commission is not talked nearly so much about as the big sale at Fraser, Fraser & Co's, 27 and 29 Charlotte street, the large crowds who visit their store every day all vote that it is the greatest bargain sale they ever saw. Every one goes away satisfied that it is the real sale. They know by the low prices, that they are absolutely going out of the dry goods and ready-to-wear business. There are some very pretty and stylish ladies costumes and spring coats at prices that you could not buy the goods for; lot ladies ratinecate in the give-away prices, new, stylish garments; wash goods are marked at and below the cost; prints, 32 inch at nine cents; the wide English print at 21 cents; bonged, duck, drill, muslin, ging-limitation and below the cost; prints, 32 inch at nine cents; the wide English print at 21 cents; the wide English print at 31 cents; the wide English print at 31 cents. MARRIAGE QUESTION IN STATES

Marlboro, Mass., April 9—According to the city clerk and other officials, a marriage performed here yesterday by Rev. Father Etienne Roux, of Onnominque, P. Q., Canada. was in violation of the statutes and therefore may have to be preformed over again by a native clergyman. The contraccing parties were Guilbert Dubuque and Miss Athena Leblanc. The priest is a native and resident of Canada, and therefore. so it is said, without authority to officiate at a marriage ceremony in this country. He has been conducting a mission church here.
