

DID GORKY MARRY RUSSIAN ACTRESS?

SENSATIONAL STORY IN NEW YORK PRESS

Author Declares Woman Who Accompanied Him to States is His Wife—Signed Statement.

New York, April 14.—When Maxim Gorky arrived in this country last Tuesday he stated to the immigration officers that he was accompanied by Mme. Gorky. This morning the statement was published that his companion was not his legal wife, who, with his children, remains in Russia. As a result of this publication, Gorky today issued a statement, which, translated, reads as follows:

"I think this disagreeable act against me could not have come from the American people. My respect for them does not allow me to suspect that they lack so much courtesy in their treatment of women. I think that this act is inspired by the friends of the Russian government. My wife is my wife; the wife of Maxim Gorky. She and I both consider it too low to go into any explanation about this. Every man should be given credit for his life; for us it remains to overlook the gossip of others. The best people of all lands will be with us. (Signed) "MAXIM GORKY."

The published story went on to say that the Madame Gorky who is now with the author is Andrievna, a Russian actress, with whom he has lived since his separation from his wife about three years ago. The explanation was made that being unable to secure a divorce in Russia because of the strong official sentiment against him, Gorky secured a divorce in Finland and was married to Andrievna in a notary.

When approached on the subject today, Gorky said: "The publication of such a libel in a country famed for its love of fair play and its reverence for women such as Russia, is a disgraceful act. I am surprised that it should be made by man can make her more than she is now. The insinuation that the relations now existing between us is illicit is a base falsehood. Never was there any such thing as a wife more holy and more moral than that of ours."

Madame Gorky tried to appease her husband in this point, but he struck the copy in Russia. I cannot answer to the request of the proprietor, and went to the residence of H. Gaylord Wilsher, in West Third street, as the guest of Mr. Wilsher.

Placed For Author. St. Petersburg, April 14.—Mme. Andrievna, who is said to have accompanied Maxim Gorky to the United States, is one of the best known actresses here. Up to a few months ago no divorce from his wife had been granted Gorky, but it is alleged his relations with her have been severed, although he is still supporting her. It is said Mme. Gorky fully understood Gorky and Mme. Andrievna, but nevertheless she was extremely devoted to Gorky. After the tragedy of "Red Sunday" Gorky is alleged to have been taken into custody and brought to the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul. Mme. Gorky then bent her every energy to secure his release. She succeeded from official to official, supplied eating on bended knee the release of the novelist, whose life she insisted would be jeopardized if he remained in the dungeons of the fortress. The night he was released Mme. Gorky saw him only for a few moments, and, it is said, he then returned to Riga, where he met Mme. Andrievna. In justice to Gorky, however, it should be stated that the police insisted he should leave St. Petersburg immediately. Gorky, it is said, spent last summer in Finland with Mme. Andrievna.

RETURNING HOME. Italians Who Fled During Eruption of Vesuvius Are at Work Repairing Houses.

Naples, April 14, 8.40 a.m.—The news from the Vesuvius region continues to be satisfactory, the sun is shining brightly this morning and the last vestige of the eruption is disappearing from the sky.

The work of clearing and sweeping is still going on here, but the city has about resumed its normal appearance while the population in the villages and towns in the region of Vesuvius say that the people are gradually returning to their homes, and that the stores are being reopened and that the inhabitants of the towns which suffered the least are actively engaged in repairing their damaged houses and churches and roads in which they are assisted by the troops and government engineers.

This being Sabo-tanto, or the Saturday before the church of the Am. of this city are overcrowded with worshippers of all classes. Every religious function to-day was a thanksgiving for the danger passed, while religious masses were celebrated for the repose of the victims of the volcanic disaster. Near the statue in the cathedral of the Patron Saint of Naples, San Gennaro, a young girl, was engaged in specially earnest prayer. Afterward, as she left the cathedral looking particularly happy, the child was questioned as to what boon she had been asking of San Gennaro, to which she replied: "That the saint will cause the Queen to come and live in Naples, as she brings good luck. The volcano is afraid of her."

The feeling of joyous thanksgiving in Naples contrasted strongly with the mournful scene witnessed in the devastated districts, relatives weeping over dead and priests going from house to house blessing the homes of the bereaved, while high above them was Mount Vesuvius still retaining a threatening appearance.

The Duke of Aosta to-day boarded the flagship of the French squadron in these waters. He was received at the gangway by the French commander, Admiral Monceau, whom the Duke warmly thanked in the name of King Victor Emmanuel and of the people of Naples for the sufferers from the recent disaster.

The crews of the French warships in addition to rendering all the assistance ashore, contributed $2,000 to the fund being raised for the relief of the sufferers. The British armored cruiser Leviathan arrived here today to assist in the relief of the sufferers from the eruption.

Observer's Story. Naples, April 14.—After a hard ride on horseback up the side of the mountain, the Associated Press representative to-day succeeded in reaching the highest accessible spot on Vesuvius where Professor Matteucci, director of the royal observatory, courageously held his post throughout the eruption.

Professor Matteucci was asked to tell in his own way the story of the cataclysm from the outset. He readily consented to do so, and in good French gave the following detailed narrative: "I first observed Mount Vesuvius giving unusual signs about a month ago, when the lava began to overflow, taking a southwest direction. This gradually increased as several small lava streams formed into one great stream, the real danger being in the middle of last week. Then an enormous stream of lava came from the summit and other streams which burst from the lower strata.

PLANNING OUTBREAK. News From Russia That Fighting Will Occur on April 25th.

Seattle, April 13.—Revolutionists are planning an outbreak in Russia on Easter Sunday (April 15th) by the American calendar, according to a letter received by Alex. Kopsky, a Russian refugee of this city, from his brother Paul in Kieff, Russia. The letter stated that arms and ammunition had been secured and the secret societies had laid plans more carefully for this outbreak than any which has gone before. The students in particular are ready for the struggle, and even many women are engaged in the plot. The scene of the greatest fighting, according to the letter, will be Kieff, where the Jews and the revolutionists have joined forces against the Czarist forces. Mr. Kopsky has been in America for about fifteen months and came here from Russia shortly after escaping from the terrible prison of Biblovolky-Hulocul, where he was confined for ten months and twelve days. By bribing several of the guards a number of the inmates were able to escape, and after great difficulties managed to get across the border, first buying the papers from the officers who made a business of selling these papers. He came through several of the European countries, staying a while in Berlin, and also in Paris, and later returning to New York, and later to Seattle. Mr. Kopsky is a man of more than ordinary attainments, and speaks English fluently. He stated that he learned the language while in the prison, and that he had studied the Russian language for several years.

Rich, Pure Blood Will Drive Out the Most Obsolete Cases of Rheumatism. Growing pains, aching joints, stiffened muscles, tender, swollen joints, rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, etc., are all due to the presence of acid in the blood. This acid is the cause of all these ailments, and it is the duty of the physician to remove it. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People is the only medicine that does this. It is a blood purifier, and it is the only medicine that can be taken by the most delicate women and children.

FATAL EXPLOSION OF BATTLESHIP KEARSARGE. Powder in Turret Became Ignited and Six Men Were Killed—Report From Admiral Evans.

Washington, April 14.—Two years to day later than the fatal Missouri disaster, and on a Friday, and the thirteenth of the month, six men were killed in the forward turret of the battleship Kearsarge by one of those accidents which acquire additional terror for scores because of their obscure origin and almost impossibility of prevention.

The Atlantic fleet, the strongest fighting fleet that has ever been owned by America, has been for weeks engaged in the most severe drills in the waters of the Caribbean sea, culminating in the quarterly target practice, which was just about concluded with most satisfactory results, and was confidently expected to close on the basis of preliminary reports received, that all records would be broken in the matter of rapid firing and efficiency of the gunners.

Secretary Navy, Washington, D.C. "On April 13th, about 3.15 p.m., shortly after competition target practice of Kearsarge forward turret, while working a 12-inch charge, powder ignited. Charge of powder in other lift just below, and one section inside 13-inch remained intact. Cause not yet determined. Matter is being investigated by Lieut. Joseph W. Gram, gunnery instructor, who is now in the Maryland in a very critical condition, about 9 p.m. The following have since died: Lieut. Huggins, turret officer; Lieut. Norbert, gunnery instructor; Naegely, seaman; Antonio Thorson, ordnance sergeant; Julius M. Koster, turret captain, first class; Ellis N. Whey, seaman. The vessel was uninjured.

FIELD SPORTS. New Athletic Organization May Be Formed in Canada. Montreal, April 14.—Representatives of five senior lacrosse clubs now forming the National Amateur Lacrosse Union met last night and agreed upon a programme which practically means casting aside from the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union. It means more, it means that an effort will be made to establish a new organization to control field sports in Canada, under this head being included lacrosse, football and hockey. It was practically decided, too, that the composition of the present league will remain unchanged, that is to say, Capt. Vics, one of the best players in the country, will remain in the team, and that the National will remain the quintette forming the body. To make up a longer season, the clubs will play a double schedule, which will play a team which will have eight matches at home.

GORKY'S SYMPATHY. New York, April 14.—The Tribune says: "Maxim Gorky's forty days in America was signalled by the sending of a telegram of sympathy to W. D. Haywood and Chas. Moyer, of the Western Federation of Miners, in jail at Caldwell, Idaho, on the charge of conspiracy to murder ex-governor Steuneger. Gorky's friend, it is feared by some of his friends, blights the prospects of his work here at the outset."

ROSSLAND MINES. Development of Centre Star Yields Good Results—Ore Shipments.

Rossland, April 14.—There were no incidents of importance during the past week in the mines. The development of the Centre Star continues to be the case with the tenth and eleventh levels of what was formerly the War Eagle. The task of connecting the Centre Star and War Eagle shafts, which has been going on for some time, is now being pushed forward. The object of this is so that all the hoisting may ultimately be done from the Centre Star shaft, and do away with the hoisting from the War Eagle shaft.

The shipping of the week ending this evening were: Centre Star, 4,320 tons; Le Roi, 2,480 tons; Le Roi No. 2, 570 tons. Total for the week, 7,320 tons, and for the year 38,385 tons.

BLOOD WILL TELL. Rich, Pure Blood Will Drive Out the Most Obsolete Cases of Rheumatism.

London, April 14.—The statements published here to the effect that Germany is supporting Turkey in maintaining the occupation of Tabah are not confirmed at the foreign office. An official pointed out to-day that Great Britain was careful to secure Germany's acquiescence to the Anglo-French agreement in respect to Egypt and thus avoided the troubles with France encountered in connection with Morocco. The foreign office official added that it is inconceivable in view of this fact that Germany would interfere in any way with the British administration of Egypt.

NEW RUSSIAN LOAN. Terms Settled and France Will Subscribe for $200,000,000. Paris, April 14.—Official announcement is made to-day that the Russian financiers and French bankers have agreed on the terms of a new Russian loan. The terms agreed upon are $400,000,000 in 5 per cent bonds at about 88, the issue to be April 28. France will subscribe for $200,000,000. In official and financial circles the terms are considered sufficiently attractive to ensure over subscription.

BOY CAUSED PANIC. Shouted "Fire" in Church and Four Persons Were Killed in Rush From Building. Chicago, April 14.—During a panic following a prankish cry of fire by a boy to-night while 400 persons were participating in a service at the St. Ludwigs Roman Catholic church, Twenty-fourth street and Albany avenue, Emily Horka, Lillie Gowan and Barbara Horkalk, children, and Mrs. Kate Kowalski, a woman, were killed. Several others were injured, several seriously. There was no fire. Father Farnik was offering prayer when one of a crowd of boys outside the church pushed open the front door and shouting "Fire" seeing the serious effect his words had on the congregation the boy ran away. The pastor and ushers vainly endeavored to quiet the congregation, explaining that there was no danger. Those who had no fear were trampled on by those who were frightened.

SERBIAN REGICIDES. One of Leaders Has Been Placed on the Retired List. Belgrade, April 13.—General Vukobratovic, one of the leaders in the plot which resulted in the assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga, and who was subsequently appointed chancellor of the department for education decorations, was to-day placed on the retired list at his own request. It is hoped that this indicates the beginning of the weeding out of the regicides.

MUTINOUS SAILORS. Lisbon, April 14.—The mutinous spirit has spread to the crew of the Portuguese ironclad Vasco Da Gama. The authorities have taken precautions to prevent further outbreaks. A number of the crew of the cruiser Don Carlos I, who mutinied April 11th, have been imprisoned.

NEGROES LYNNED. Hanged to a Statue of the Goddess of Liberty at Springfield, Mo.

Springfield, Mo., April 14.—A mob of 200 men to-night took Horace Duncan and John Copeland, negroes, from the county jail and hanged them to the goddess of liberty on the courthouse, and built a fire under them, roasting them. The men were charged with assaulting Mabel Edwards, but it is probable they were innocent.

Last night while Miss Edwards and a young man named Cooper were out riding, they were stopped by two negroes, who beat Cooper into unconsciousness and dragged Miss Edwards into the woods by the roadside and assaulted her. Duncan and Copeland were arrested on suspicion, but there was no evidence against them. One thousand men gathered at the jail to-night, and on hearing that the negroes were not there hastened to the county jail, where they attacked the jail first, the mob storming the residence of the county sheriff, breaking down doors, smashing windows, etc., and rendering the sheriff's wife unconscious from fright and violence. Overcoming the resistance of the sheriff and a posse of deputies, the mob secured the key to the jail and gained an entrance. When the committee came out with the two negroes the mob clamored for riotous and on suspicion, but there was no evidence against them.
