Tomorrow the annual church service will be held there. Rev. Dr. Lindsay Parker, of Brooklyn (N. Y.), will preach. On Monday morning the yachts will start for Grand Lake and the cruise between that place and Millidgeville will last six days. LOOK UPON THE JAPANESE SITUATION AS SERIOUS

British Journals Comment on the Dispute Which They Believe Requires the Most Careful Handling—Other Opinions on the Question.

LONDON, July 12.—The weekly reviews comment gravely upon the Japanese-American situation. They express relief that the immediate tension appears to have been relieved, but they foresee that it is not impossible in the more or less distant future that the same problem should confront Great Britain that now confronts the United States. The Spectator publishes a thoughtful article in which, although it dismisses the idea that war between Japan and America is wholly incredible, it admits with reluctance that the situation contains many elements of anxiety saying it is almost inevitable that there should come a conflict some time or other, out of the Anglo-Saxon resistance to the landing of Japanese immigrants in the territories bordering the Pacific Ocean. The colonists of Australia, Africa, and Canada, are as anxious as the people of California, to exclude the yellow races. With all respect towards Japan the Spectator is unable to withhold its sympathy from the colonists. It says circumstances have forced the Americans to be the pioneers in working out the problem, but it is impossible to foresee how soon another series of accidents may not bring Great Britain face to face with the problem of a peaceful and enduring solution of the American-Japanese problem, the Government by the successful influence of an ally and the press by the avoidance of any comment that might prove to be an embarrassing precedent in the future. With all sympathy and admiration for Japanese aspirations and for the Japanese themselves, we must admit, the Review concludes, that Great Britain's first and last duty is to her own kin and blood.

THE HAGUE, July 12.—Prince Yi Tiyong, a member of the Korean Delegation that was refused official recognition by the Peace Conference, has succeeded finally in being received by Joseph H. Choate, the head of the American delegation, and David J. Hill, the American Minister to the Netherlands. Questioned after the interview the Prince said his reception and conversation with the Americans had been most cordial. He declared Mr. Choate said to him—"I can do nothing in the matter of the Korean question as I have no instructions from my government and because the Korean question is outside the programme of the Peace Conference, I have the greatest sympathy for Korea, but I have not the power to do anything."

LONDON, July 12.—A special despatch received here from the Hague, gives an interview with Alberto Sato a member of the Japanese delegation to the Peace Conference. Mr. Sato said: "Neither nor my colleagues are aware of any crisis between American and Japan and certainly all talk of a rupture or war is the wildest exaggeration. It is equally untrue that we decline to support the proposal for immunity of shipping on the high seas, because we wish to leave our hands free to attack American commerce in case of war."

NEW YORK, July 12.—According to the Herald, private detectives are attempting to solve the mystery of a $20,000 jewel robbery from the private safe in the office of J. M. Ceballos and Company, bankers and brokers, who failed not long ago, for something like $4,000,000. It was about two weeks ago that the goods were first missed, but no report has been made to the police department. The matter is in the hands of a private detective agency. The stolen were the belongings of Mr. Ceballos himself, and by him were kept in a large private safe in the suite of offices which the firm leased and the assignee still occupies in the Lords Court Building in William Street. Several had access to the safe in question, but only one or two others besides Mr. Ceballos had the key to the private compartment.

J. M. Ceballos and Company, with extensive interests in Cuba, Puerto Rico, and South American countries, failed last October.

VON BUELOW SCORED A SIGNAL VICTORY

Practical Transformation of Imperial and Prussian Ministers Result of His Coup

Their Successors Personal Friends of the Emperor and Adherents of Chancellor

BERLIN, July 12.—Prince Buelow's visit to the Kaiser at Kiel has resulted in what is practically a transformation of the imperial and Prussian ministerial cabinet. Last night the Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung announced the retirement of Count von Posadowsky, imperial minister of the interior, and Herr von Stult, Prussian minister of education. Count von Posadowsky is succeeded by Herr von Bethmann-Hollweg, hitherto Prussian minister of the interior, and Herr von Stult is succeeded by Herr von Moltke, hitherto oberpräsident of the province of east Prussia, steps into Herr Bethmann-Hollweg's shoes, and Herr von Stult is succeeded by Herr von Bethmann-Hollweg, of the Department of Education.

CONSUMPTION CURED BY AIR AND WORK

Gratifying Results Follow Series of Experiments at English Sanatorium

LONDON, July 12.—That tuberculosis in its early stages can be cured by fresh air, sunlight and a graduated system of outdoor work is being demonstrated at the Brompton Hospital Sanatorium at Primley. The patients at this first stage, who have been carefully examined and watched for some weeks at the Brompton Hospital.

After their arrival at Primley the patients do no work until their temperatures have been normal for some days. Then they begin on the first grade of outdoor work, which consists of simply walking about the grounds. From this they work up to doing severe manual labor, such as digging trenches in previously unbroken ground. The treatment usually lasts about six months. Of the cases transferred to the sanatorium last year, 110 were discharged with "total arrest" of the disease, twenty-one "much improved" and twenty-five "improved." Of these cases, 113 are at work, nineteen are not at work, while twenty-three have failed to report and one only is known to have died.

Everywhere throughout the grounds the patients are at work; the women at gardening, cutting the grass, etc.; the men, some at their various trades, some at work, and others in building a concrete reservoir and sawing firewood, etc. Among the work accounts from the patients is the opening of the sanatorium may be mentioned the excavating of the walls of the buildings and filling and cutting into firewood about 100 trees.

$20,000 WORTH OF JEWELS WERE STOLEN

CALCUTTA, July 12.—It is believed here that the Indian Government has been corresponding with the government of French India regarding the facilities afforded for the smuggling of arms through Chandernagar and Pondicherry.

The French Colonial Government heartily assented to the British representations, and a new arms act has been prepared, containing stringent regulations with regard to the purchase and possession of arms by French military subjects. In laying the act before his council, the French governor referred to the "anti-European movement which is going on around us in British territory," and he also made a pointed reference to the tendencies to some extent revealed at Chandernagar.

A gold bucket and chain found on German street yesterday by E. M. Shubert, was handed over to the police and awaits an owner at Central Station.

MISS CASSIE PATCHELL WILL BE FORCIBLY EVICTED

The End of a Long Drawn Out Foreclosure Suit—The Woman Gained Fame by Holding up the West Side Wharf Construction.

A regular old time eviction promises to occur in Carleton during the next few days. The victim, if she can be so called, is Miss Cassie Patchell, who almost deserves the description of a public character, as the past few years has brought her somewhat to the front. Over a dozen years ago when the city decided to begin the construction of West Side wharves properties on one side of West Point were purchased. Miss Patchell who lived in a worn out and sorrowful looking shack alone refused to vacate. She did not want to lose her home. Meanwhile city workmen tore down the houses and barns on each side until they came to Cassie's home which blocked further progress. Negotiations were of no avail, and for weeks St. John's future as a winterport seemed to hang on the whim of this unmarried woman of uncertain age. Finally after weeks of impatient waiting Miss Patchell was induced to accept a bonus of one hundred dollars for moving out of the house which she occupied and in addition was given the boards and shingles of which the building was composed.

FRANCE WANTS LOWER DUTY ON ALL WINES TO CANADA

He had a ticket for the West, and not being allowed to stay in the depot until the time for the first train this morning took to the doorway. He was allowed to go.

MANY NEW LAWS IN FORCE IN TEXAS

DALLAS, Texas, July 12.—With midnight last, a large number of state laws went into effect. Some of these laws follow: Permitting medical colleges to deal in human bodies, prohibiting cock fighting, making it a misdemeanor to drink liquor on trains, prohibiting free passes or franks of any sort, creating an eight-hour day for telegraphers and full train crews, abolishing new school trustees, requiring insurance companies to invest 75 per cent. of their Texas earnings in the state, bookkeeping houses, exchanges, and bucket shops are closed, as the law does not permit wire service to them.
