AMUSEMENTS

TODAY'S NEW MUSIC AT NICKEL No musical feature the Nickel has yet treated its patrons to has been received with more genuine delight than the Bush Family String Quintette, which is packing the big theatre afternoons and evenings. Today the new programme for these people is as follows: (a) "The Voice of Love," Schumann, (b) 'Cello Solo: "Evening Star," Warner; (c) Hungarian Lutspiel-Keler-Bela. There will be encore numbers as well. Already the music-loving people of the city have heard the children and have promised themselves a hearing of all their programmes. Mr. Robert Buchanan will today please again with Tosti's dramatic love-song, "Good-Bye," and on Friday will render"The Sweetest Flower That Blows." Saturday he farewells with a trio of selections en suite. The Nickel's picture bill elicited many laudatory remarks yesterday. It includes, "The Country Doctor (Biograph); "A Friend of the Family" (Biograph); "A Friend of the Family" (Biograph); "Tender Hearta" (Biograph), and "Before The Mast" (Selig). Big professional orchestra.

DR. CREED

A GOOD SHOW AT H. H. H.

and faithful service.

Prof. Kidner's book of educational hand work was authorized to be used as a teacher's text book.

Miss Annie Watson of Rexton was appointed as assistant instructor of manual training at the Normal School. Dr. D. W. Hamilton, who has been temporarily employed as teacher at the Normal School, was made a permanent member of the staff.

The committee appointed some time ago to look into the matter recommended that military and physical training be introduced in the Normal School at next term.

Chief Supt. Carter and Principal Bridges were appointed a committee to take the matter up with the military authorities. It was also recommended that military and physical training be introduced at the university, providing the senate approves. If you want to see one of the best pictures ever shown in this city, see The Slave at the H. H. H. today. Patrons said it's the best seen here in months. Words fail to describe it. It's a Biograph picture and one of their best. If you want a hearty laugh see The Contagious Itch, the crowds roared last night at both it and The New Footman, two great comedies. These pictures are shown for the last time today. Today Blamphin and Hehr have a new song programme. Matrimonial Squabbles is a comedy duet. Once Again is a catchy solo by Mr. Blomphin, and There's Something Nice About You is a very catchy conversational
