PROVINCIAL NEWS

BATHURST, Feb. 19.-The Board of Health is now able to announce that Gloucester is entirely free from smallpox. The only cases in Bathurst were the Lavigne family, a man and wife and three or four children. strenuous efforts on the part of the local board the disease was confined to the one house, and all the patients have been cured and about their business for some time. Dr. Meahan is now collecting the accounts and getting ready for a meeting of the board to wind up the matter.

The recent storms upset business to a considerable extent. The Caraquet railway people have been engaged for over a week ploughing out the road. In many places the drifts were fifteen to twenty feet high, and of course every cutting was completely filled. This morning, for the first time since the last storm, a through train started for Shippegan with freight and

The roads all through the county are in a bad state for driving. In this connection travellers often wonder why the people of Gloucester persist using the very old fashione straight shafted rig. From Miramichi around as far as Tracadie the shift bar, as used everywhere else, is in vogue, but as soon as the traveller gets into the county of Gloucester his insides are jolted out on the sidling

The examination of Joseph T. Commeau, formerly agent for the county of Gloucester of the Singer Sewing Machine Co., who is charged with appropriating funds of the company, is going on before John E. O'Brien, county court commissioner. The case is a very intricate one, and quite an array of legal talent is engaged. Daniel Mullin of St. John appears with J. P. Byrne of Bathurst for the company Commeau is defended by Messrs Landry and Gilbert, and John J. Harrington, clerk of the peace, appears for the crown. The examination before the magistrate has already taken up some days.

The approach of Lent has wakened up our society people a little, and quite a number of very nice parties have taken place during the past few evenings. Enjoyable affairs of this kind were given by Mrs. Dr. Duncan, Mrs. Henry Bishop, Mrs. Jacob White and Mrs. Samuel Bishop. The names of the ladies speak for the entertain-

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rive of Cara quet were in Bathurst on Tuesday on their way to England and Jersey. Mrs. Rive hopes to visit Paris and other continental cities before she returns, and Mr. Rive to combine business with a well deserved holiday. All their friends wish them a very pleasant time. Geo. W. Mersereau, inspector of schools was in Bathurst on Monday. Those popular butchers, Messr Fenwick and Berry, have dissolved partnership, each continuing business on his own account. Mr. Berry has fitted up a new shop in the Boss building, which, from its neat and clean appearance, should please his custom-

Reports from the lumber woods are has been one of the very best ever ately, nearly all the operators had got through with hauling to the yards before the recent heavy storms, consequently the deeper snow will not very much interfere with hauling from

Very large quantities of railway ties are yet being hauled out all along the lines of the Intercolonial and Caraquet rallways, and immense quanti ties are piled up. Rumor says that much of this stuff will be used in Nova Scotia and Cape Breton. As very good prices were paid all winter for ties and posts, this has been a great boon to poor people all along the North Shore. Two of our young men, Fred Rob ertson and Joseph Bertin, have been accepted for police service in South Africa, and are now waiting orders to join the others at St. John:

The first instalment of the fortune left to the Williamson heirs, eleven in number, by a relative lately deceased in England, has come to hand and is being distributed amongst the lucky recipients thereof by the solicitor for heirs, M. N. Cockburn, K. C., judge of probates.

BATHURST, Feb. 22.-Judge Wilkinson of Chatham was in Bathurst today holding court.

A man named Alphonse Mallet was tried under the Speedy Trials Act for stealing money from his employer, the Rev. Father Rosanne of Shippegan. It appears that the revere gentleman frequently missed small sums of money from a drawer which was kept locked, but the key of which hung with some others in the room. missing two or three small sums Father Rosanne marked two five dollar bills, which he deposited with some silver in the drawer. The bills were taken, and enquiry brought to light the fact that they had been changed at a bar-room in the village by the priest's servant. The man was at once arrested, examined before a magistrate and sent up for trial. The result of the trial today before Judgo Wilkinson was that Mallet gets three

Even at a short distance from Rome, the misery of the people is assuming disquieting proportions. The municipalities of Albano, Marino and Arriaca have instituted economical kitchens, and are delivering food to persons especially needy. Their resources, however, are diminishing. The English have adopted a new fad in the shape of perfumed butter. The butter is of extra fine quality, and wrapped in muslin. It is then placed upon a bed of rose leaves, and the whole put in a refrigerator, where is is allowed to remain for ten or 12 hours, during which time it become perfumed.
