About Thirty Delegates in Attende at Thursday's Meeting.

Secretary-Treasurer's Report-Question of Separate Convention Discussed Report of Nominating Committee.

MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 22—The Baptist Young People's Union got down to business this morning, about thirty delegates being in attendance. Rev. G. A. Lawson presided and appointed Rev. J. G. A. Belyes and G.

The report of the secretary treasurer was submitted by the assistant, H. H. Saunders. It showed 35 unions reporting, with a membership of 2,027, of which 1,580 are active and 447 caseclate. Three unions have been organized and one resuscitated during the year. Several of the targer unions have not reported, and others have merged with the regular prayer meeting, so that the real state of the society cannot be ascertained. Five unions only report educational work. Reports were received from six junior societies, with a membership of 379. Two of these were mission bands.

The next subject, Shall We Have a Separate Company to the second com years of its existence, but he did not favor abandoning the local unions.

Further discussion was deferred and the nominating committee submitted the following list of officers for the ensuing year; Rev. George A. Lawson, Isaac's Harbor, N. S. president; R. J. Colpitts, Petitcodiae, vice-president for New Brunswick; Arthur Simpson, Cavendish, vice-president for Island; Rev. J. H. McDonald, Fredericton.

At the afternoon session the first business was the reports from the associational secretaries, there being this week within a few days of each very few responses. Among those reporting were Rev. Messrs. Freeman, Fisher, Clark, Schurman and Woodman. Rev. Mr. Saunders submitted the financial statement, showing $31.82 on hand. Rev. G. R. White, Hansport, N. S., addressed the convention on Our Fuure Policy. He said they had reached critical stage in the history of the organization. Relations were strained with the international society, and the enthusiasm of the young people had cooled off. He laid stress on the importance of educational work. After remarks by Rev. Messrs. Brown, Estabrooks, Daley and Fisher, the latter moved the appointment of a committe to prepare a course of studies. This was adopted, and the following committee named: Rev. G. R. White, chairman; Dr. Trotter, Dr. Kierstead, Rev. Messrs. Hutchins and Day. The question of a separate conver tion was then taken up and discussed pro and eon by Rev. Messrs. Freeman White, Manning, Clark, Saunders, and James Cummins, Truro. The latter expressed fear that the young people's societies were an injury to the church Rev. Mr. Brown moved that the union meet in future at some place vention meets, and that the meetings be every two years. Frank Steeves doubted if they wanted a convention of the Y. P. U. at all All day had been spent in discussion and nothing was done. He did not wonder no better work was done when such a farce was enacted.

Dr. Trotter said it was quite evi dent they were attending the funeral of the Y. P. U. He favored a convention not to meet oftener than once Rev. J. R. White said if he wer

Finally an amendment was adopted referring the whole matter to a committee composed of Rev. Messrs. Daley, Freeman, Brewn, White and Schurman, to report on Friday morning.

The board of managers of the Wor cester Music Festival has made official preliminary announcement the general scheme of their for fourth annual festival.

Be sure and get the genuine fourth annual festival.

The policy of the association has been to keep pace with the advancement of the art of music and to stand as the exponent of conservative modern ideas in such branches of choral and orchestral works as have come within the range of its possibilities. The opportunities afforded during recent years have, as is cordially acknowledged by those of cultivated musical taste, enabled the association to attain an increased efficiency in choral and orchestral work; an arrangement of festival concerts more artistic and effective and less wearlsome alike to audience and performents; an increased interest in modern choral and orchestral works, and a more intelligent sense of discrimination in the old classic favorites. George W. Chadwick will be the conductor of the festival. Franz Kneisel and Wallace Goodrich will have respective canadities.
