

MERIT ROLL.

A Record of Standings, literary and moral, is daily kept, always open to inspection, from which copies will be transmitted from time to time as requested by parents and guardians.

HONORS OF THE INSTITUTION.

Diplomas will be given to Students who have passed satisfactory examinations in the full Collegiate course, and Certificates to those who have passed such examinations in the partial course.

A good moral standing is necessary in order to obtain either Certificate or Diploma.

BOARDING, &c.

The Institution as a home is designed to be the abode of comfort and pleasant associations.

Rooms are carpeted and furnished throughout, so that the pupil requires nothing in addition.

The provision for the table is wholesome and abundant.

GOVERNMENT.

It is intended that the government of the Institution shall be firm without being arbitrary; that it shall be founded upon confidence in the pupils, and its tendency shall be to teach them self-control, obedience to principles, and a conscientious regard for the right.

No young lady will be allowed to retain her connexion with the School whose example tends to encourage indolence or insubordination, or whose influence is in other respects injurious.

PRINCIPLES

Truthfulness in opposition to pretence in anything, patriotism, love of home, devotion to parents, simplicity, inartificiality, avoidance of heartlessness and display.

The Students are favored with access to select society without its late hours and general dissipation.

Select Musical and Literary Soirees are given at suitable intervals.

Aim—to produce a rich, deep and graceful character, generous and sympathetic, with self-reliant independence of thought, and freedom from weak sentimentalism.

PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT.

The laws of hygiene insisted upon in respect to dress and exercise.

DRESS, &c.

It is requested that every young lady be provided with umbrella and overshoes.

That school-room dresses should be simple and inexpensive—high necks and long sleeves.

That very little jewelry and spending money shall be at their disposal.

Carelessness and the possibility of dishonesty in servants, &c., makes it proper that all funds should be deposited with the officer appointed for that purpose.

SESSION HOURS.

Morning Session for study, one hour, from six to seven o'clock.

For recitation and study, from nine to twelve, A. M., with a recess, and from two to four, P. M. Evening study from seven to nine.

RECEIVING VISITS.

All persons except immediate relatives wishing to visit Students, are expected to present a letter from parents or guardians, or to be otherwise suitably introduced.

Visits without this preliminary must be declined.
