Quietly Working For Peace.
The way it looks now, according to the gentlemen of the M. A. A. U.

TALKING OF LATER OPENING

Chicago, May 1.—The postponement of many baseball games during the storm has again raised the question of the advisability of beginning the season too early in the month. Jimmy Collins, the former Bostonian, now manager of the Minneapolis Club, thinks the playing should start later. The weather is so uncertain, here, said he, "that it would be much better to open the season in the south and remain there as long as possible. It not only hurts the playing in their condition, but it puts some pitchers out of business for weeks afterwards and I don't think the club is ahead in the east for if you lose the services of one pitcher for a few months it may put you to the bad and cost you more in the end, have never been in favor of opening in cities where the weather is cold and I hope that next year the western teams in the American Association will start the season in the south. It helps the game, too, to have the good players in the best of condition for they can put up a better article of ball when playing in form."

CANADIAN SPORTING NOTES.
The regatta dates so far announced are: Lorne Club, July 24; Banook's, Dartmouth, August 5, and North West Arm R. C., August 14.

The Toronto Globe says: "Goettell, of Jersey City, blanked Montreal with one hit Sunday. Fine when he wins but how they will corrupt that name when he loses."

The first Canadian home in the Brantford-Hamilton race on Tuesday Day will be sent by the Hamilton Spectator to the Athens games next spring.

Jack McLean is mentioned a possible trade of two or three Cincinnati players for Catcher Kling.

The Toronto News says: Taylor will not come down from the north this summer. Taylor will be a great loss to the Argonauts. It was a fine stroke and had a great future before him.

Fred Warren, trainer of the Springfield Stables owned by J. R. Cowan, returned from Prince Edward Island bringing with him a very promising green trotter sired by Kremlin stallion Kahol, 2:19 1/4.

The Woodstock Rifle Club has elected the following officers:
Wm. Baldwin—Captain.
Jm. Chapman—1st Lieutenant.
J. L. Ross—2nd Lieutenant.
J. S. McManus—Treasurer.
C. M. Aughton—Secretary.

Executive Committee consists of the officers and E. K. Connell and J. H. Thompson.

On Saturday next Tom Longboat and Alf Shrub will run a fifteen mile race at Montreal.

The Halifax Echo waxes indignant over the Montreal Star's remarks concerning the track on the W. A. A. grounds. It hands out the following: "Speaking of the Longboat-Shrub race at Montreal on April 28th the Montreal Star says: 'There is a clay track in Halifax, which is considered pretty good, but for a cinder track, the M. A. A. A. track has them all beaten. And there will be a race on' who ever since the visit of Mr. Merick Montreal last summer, have been working for peace, but who are only looking for results and prefer no noisiness in the matter, is that in all probability the what might be almost called joint-meeting in Montreal and Toronto, will be followed by a meeting in Montreal, on the plan of that held in Toronto. At any rate peace is virtually here.

ATELL CALLS OFF HIS FIGHT WITH MORAN

New York, May 1.—Abe Atell, the featherweight champion may not be seen in the ring again for several months, because of an injured hand received in a recent fight with Blz Mackay at Columbus, Ohio. It was announced today that Atell's fight with Owen Moran, the English fighter, has been called off. Atell first injured his right hand in his fight with Jim Driscoll and again in his fight with Young Pierce. In his fight with Mackay he landed a heavy right hand blow which crippled the member again.

AN EXODUS OF YANKEE FIGHTERS

America never saw such an exodus of pugilistic champions and near-champions as it has the past few days. Sandy Ferguson is now en route to Paris. Sam Langford and Jimmy Walsh are soon to follow. Jack Johnson and Jeffries will soon be on the job and Honey Melody and Harry Sears are the latest to announce offers from foreign fight promoters. With all Yankee boys in such demand abroad, it shows that pugilism is receiving a greater boom than ever in foreign climes.

matter what weather and no matter what rumors to the contrary appear. The Star apparently is anything but well informed on Halifax tracks. The opinion of Bobby Kerr, Tom Burke and others might be of interest to the sporting editor of that paper."

WITHIN THE ROPES.
Jack Humphries, manager of Freddie Welch, who is scheduled to fight Dave Deshler in Boston Tuesday night, said Friday that he will try to induce the officials of the armory A. A. to agree to the selection of a referee who will be satisfactory to Welch. "It is only natural that the Boston referee should be prejudiced in favor of their native son," said Joe, "especially when he is pitted against a foreigner, which Welch practically is. This fight means much for both boys. Welch has $5,000 of England in the first round. The Englishman was completely outclassed and put up little semblance of resistance."

HEARD ON THE BENCH
The Highlanders need Chase and Hemphill badly, their showing in the last two games being anything but that of a big league team.
This Speaker is making friends friends every day. He is starting in every department, on his performance so far this season looks like a great player.

Manager Joe Cantillon is quoted by New York exchanges as saying that Highlanders will be "in at the finish" of the league race.
Bill Dyer, the former Holy Cross player, who has played several seasons in the Southern league, has been ill with pneumonia at his home in Worcester. Dyer may join the Elmira team of the New York league this season.

Alf Shrub has been complimented by Tom Flanagan, Longboat's erstwhile manager. Flanagan says that at ten miles Alfie overshadows any other runner in the world.

THE 400-point match game at 18-2 balk line billiards scheduled between Willie Hoppe and Albert Cutler in Boston, has been declared off by Hoppe.

The triple tie for second, third and fourth prizes in the national billiard championship will not be played off owing to a death in the family of Clarence Jackson of Chicago, one of the three men tied.

BASKET BALL AS PLAYED IN YARMOUTH

The Algonquin intermediate basketball team report a most enjoyable trip to Yarmouth. In the pretty Nova Scotia town, they found that basketball draws a much larger crowd than it does in St. John, but the husky Yarmouth team proved easy for the light and speedy local intermediates. The boys were pleased at the size of the crowd which the game attracted and compared their home crowds with disadvantage for the latter—but for that matter almost any town will make St. John look small in the matter of attendance at any kind of sport. The large, clear playing space. The little difference here, for the people have established a general principle of staying away from the playing of fields, floors and rinks.

In Yarmouth the rink is utilized as a basketball floor. The space between four pillars has been boarded up for five feet, and finished to a point above the baskets with wire netting tightly drawn. This arrangement affords an ideal playing floor, giving a large, clear playing space. The playing space and in the gallery. Spectators are accommodated about the Algonquins were played to the rink by a band which continued its efforts throughout the game, and were given a much enjoyed supper at the Y. M. C. A. and a good time generally.

Accompanying the team were Mr. W. J. Holder and Mr. Walter Jones. In weight, the Yarmouth team had it on the Algonquins altogether, but the local boys played a fast combination game that had the Nova Scotians puzzled, and could easily have doubled their score. The intermediates started out with a rush, and had run the score up to 16-2 by the time the first half was half over.

Walter Jones was to have refereed the first half and a Yarmouth man was to take the second. The Yarmouth team thought, however, that Mr. Jones was following the Algonquins to play in too rough a style, and would not proceed until a Halifax man had been substituted. The change proved an unlucky one for Yarmouth, as the new referee turned their kicks down in very quick style. As the Yarmouth team weighed from 30 to 40 pounds more per man than the Algonquins, the change of rough play seemed rather ludicrous.

Algonquins lined up as follows: Holder, (Capt.), Chase, forwards; Cowan, centre; Stan Seely and Lloyd defence.

Holder was responsible for four field baskets; Chase for three; Cowan for two; and Lloyd for two. Seely on the defence played a dour game, and Lloyd scored on two very pretty long throws. Cowan at centre was facing Young, the captain, and heavyweight of the Yarmouth's, and showed him the way all through the game. Chase and Holder shot with a speed and accuracy which had the Yarmouth defence guessing for 40 minutes.

Young, of the Yarmouth team showed the greatest ability of the five, and played a steady game throughout. The Bridgewater team will play in Yarmouth this week.

ERXLEBEN WINS ST. LOUIS MARATHON

St. Louis, May 1.—Running the full Marathon distance in 2:49:10 2-5, Joseph Erxleben, of the Missouri A. C., tonight defeated out Jack Scales, of England in the fifth annual run of that organization. Alexander Thibault, of the First Regiment, Chicago, was second in 2:55:25, and Calvert Heath, of the Illinois A. C., Chicago, was third.

JEANNETTE WINS MAY DAY BOUT

Paris, May 1.—On his first appearance in Paris since he beat Sam McVey, Joe Jeannette, of New York, tonight knocked out Jack Scales, of England in the first round. The Englishman was completely outclassed and put up little semblance of resistance.

INTER-SOCIETY LEAGUE WILL PLAY 38 GAMES; START TO BE MADE MONDAY, MAY 17

At a meeting of the Inter-Society Base Ball League, held on Saturday evening, the schedule of games for the coming season was drawn up. Including games to be played on Saturday's and holidays, the schedule calls for thirty-eight games in all. The series closes on Monday, July 19th. This will give over two months of duration for the league, exclusive of postponed games. The schedule does not provide for uniformity of playing days in each week, but has been arranged so that games take place on every day except Friday.

Only one Wednesday game will be played, however, and the general system is that of games on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. The present arrangements are for seven o'clock evening games, and Saturday games at three in the afternoon. A change may be made, however, in the evening time. This depends on the passage of the Daylight Saving Bill.

The question of referees came up at the meeting, but was not finally adjusted. Judge Ritchie, president, and the members of the executive representing the several teams were present.
