Harold McCormack Admits Separation

Butler Tells of Estrangement of Chicago Man and Former Miss Edith Rockefeller.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Mr. Harold McCormack presents his complaints and begs to announce that he and his wife are living apart in truth.

The message was delivered by the butler at the McCormack home in Lake Forest today. Mr. McCormack, president of the International Harvester Company, spent the night there.

Mrs. McCormack, daughter of John D. Rockefeller and patroness of the arts in Chicago, is staying at the Chicago residence, at 3000 Lake Shore Drive.

She returned to this city yesterday after an absence of eight years in Switzerland, where she was a pupil of the famous psychologist, Dr. Carl Jung, at Zurich.

Through his butler last night Mr. McCormack had issued this statement: "Mr. Harold McCormack declines to make any statement beyond confirmation of the report that he and his wife are not living under the same roof."

"Movie" Star Has Only Contempt For Court Charges. Spurns the Idea That She Should be Thought Guilty of Criminal Act.

Los Angeles, Oct. 6.—Gloria Swanson, movie star, registered an extreme contempt today replying to charges that she and her mother unduly influenced Matthew P. Burns, her stepfather, who died leaving an estate of $100,000 cutting off other relatives.

"Too absurd to discuss," said the film beauty. It was charged by relatives that Gloria and her mother paid $100 for an introduction to Burns whom Mrs. Swanson later married. His will left the estate to his wife.

Continue Good Work of Order

The Fundy Chapter I.O.D.E. Voted Money to Worthy Objects at Meeting.

With a splendid attendance and evidence of enthusiasm in the work of Good Order the Fundy Chapter, I.O.D.E., held its first meeting after the summer holidays in the G. W. V. A. rooms.

Communications were read by the secretary, Miss Frances Alward from G. B. Allan, of the Navy League, asking for increased membership; from A. L. Madum of the G. W. V. A., thanking the chapter for assistance.

Miss Helen Short, treasurer, reported that since June relief to the amount of $107 has been given to soldiers' families or others in need. Reports of cases were given by Miss Taylor, Miss Borden, Miss Barber and Miss Ross.

An educational secretary Miss Grace Flemming told of plans made for prizes at the schools at East St. John and Brookville. It was decided to get pictures and a flag for the Kindergarten at Prince Edward street.

The chapter will accept a baby vote; $30 to the tree milk fund of the Local Council of Women for this purpose.

Miss Bolton, echoes secretary, reported eight new subscriptions to the magazine of the Order. Miss Barber reported that she had donated her copy to the Church of England Institute.

Miss Alward reported on the Municipal Chapter meeting, emphasizing the appeal for a library at Grand Mistake schools. The sum of $6 was voted toward this cause.

Miss Beatrice Penney, of New York, and Miss Bernice Borden, who is leaving St. John, were made honorary members of the chapter. Three new members were welcomed, making the membership of 75 complete.

A communication from the National President was read. Plans were made and committees appointed for a tea to be held in November. The report, Miss Alice Fairweather, presided.

Prospect of Amalgamation

Protestant Orphans' Home Directors Discussed Question Yesterday.

The matter of amalgamation with the Provincial Memorial Home occupied much of the time at a general meeting of the Board of Directors of the Protestant Orphan Home, D. C.

Charles presided at this meeting which was held yesterday afternoon in the British Street Home. No decision as to amalgamation was reached, although there was considerable discussion regarding various proposals.

The secretary Dr. W. S. Morrison states that there is a reasonable prospect that the amalgamation will be decided upon. Several committees were appointed.

It is proposed to rent a house in which to care for the babies at the institution and those which may come into the Orphanage from the Memorial Home.

Two children were adopted during the month. There are 33 in the British Street Home and 66 on the West Side. The health of all the orphans is excellent and things are going along most satisfactorily at both homes.

The coming Fair in aid of the Orphanage was talked over. and strong tonight. Le Charlot and La Petite Marie Peckford et ses sœurs, M. Douglas Falrobin, were there en personnelle.

The largest crowd Franco ever saw was assembled to see the first showing of "The Kid," with Miss Jackie Coogan, everything for the benefit of Ann Morgan's Committee on devastated France.

Charlie and Doug, French and American officials scrambled like the rest of the audience to buy photographs and programs. They haven't counted the money yet. Charlie expects to sail for home October 20th, on the steamer Berengaria.

GERMANY ABANDON TO REST

Ludendorff, Hoffman and Lott of Facing Organized Defence Organization.

Berlin, Oct. 6.—Germany is no longer attempting to keep fragments of her old army together, hoping by some miracle to face the world again, in the opinion of Allied military experts and observers.

Stories that Germany is supporting 800,000 soldiers in secret organizations for this purpose are contrary to facts.

Last opinion was confirmed by conversations with German officers concerning their intentions. Gen. Ludendorff, Gen. Hoffman and Freitag Ludwig, who told the New York Herald correspondent that it was folly for a practically disarmed Germany to dream of facing a million fully organized and equipped French soldiers.

Doubtfully there are still hidden arms in Germany, but the quantities are not supposed to be great. Without arms extensive military operations are impossible. That does not mean that

Union of Side-Sh Mike's Manager of Man With Wrestler Asks Major Result from Marriage He Is

New York, Oct. 6.—In an open letter to Major Leonard Darwin, head of the Eugenics Society of Great Britain, Mike Maro of 209 Park row announces the marriage of Ludwig Cosmo, an unchallenged champion free style wrestler, to Miss Olga Vesuvius, champion middleweight lady wrestler.
