

Privy Councillors of Canada to be styled "Honourable" and for life.

Senators of Canada to be "Honourable," but only during office, and the title not to be continued afterwards.

Executive Councillors of the Provinces to be styled "Honourable," but only while in office, and the title not to be continued afterwards.

Legislative Councillors in the Provinces not in future to have that title; but gentlemen who were Legislative Councillors at the time of the Union (July 1, 1867) to retain their title of "Honourable" for life.

[Mem.—The title, though without precise warrant, has generally been conceded to the Legislative Councillors appointed at the time of the Union, as well as to their colleagues who had previously been Councillors.

By a mere lapsus pennæ the Speaker of the House of Commons was omitted from his list—an omission, we believe, not yet rectified, though usage—which becomes law where one exists opposed to or superseding it—has always conceded the title to him.]
