Although the monthly average number of convicts has increased from 514 in 1875 to 625 in 1876, the official staff of the prison remains about the same. The staff salaries in 1876, the official staff of the prison remains about the same. The difference in salaries in 1876, the official staff of the prison remains about the favour of 1875 amounted to $39,759.22, and in 1876 to $39,110.94. The difference in favour of the fav favour of last year was caused by the death of Mr. Thomas Painter, whose salary of $1.000. $1,000 per annum was saved, in consequence of Mr. James Adams having undertaken the position of the position o the performance of Mr. Painter's duties in addition to his own; and it is only just to Mr. Adams. Mr. Adams to say that he has done so most efficiently.

The amount of expenditure for all purposes in 1875, was $96,423, which, divided the amount of expenditure for all purposes in 1875, was $98,423, which, divided by the amount of expenditure for all purposes in 1870, was $50,720, which, Total expenditure for all purposes in 1876, $106,599; divided by the average monthly number of convicts, gives the expenditure of each convict, monthly number of prisoners during the year, gives the expenditure of each convict, say $170

The steady increase in the number of prisoners which has been going on for all real real research to the number of prisoners which has been going on for several years past, will, no doubt, continue till remunerative labour becomes more plentiful Lord past, will, no doubt, continue till remunerative labour becomes more plentiful, both in Canada and the United States. Although we have not had any convicts employed on regular contract work, as in former years, yet from various sources outside of the Penitentiary the sum of $23,332 has been been provided and the provided of the provided from various sources outside of the penitentiary the sum of this work was received from various $23,332 has been earned. The larger portion of this work was received from various department been earned. departments of the Dominion Government, and I hope that as the experiment, so far as I know to of the Dominion Government, and I hope that as the experiment, will be as I know, has been successful and advantageous, a much larger quantity will be given us the given us this year.
