

present arms, once a day, after which they are to turn out to them with shouldered arms.

29. To Field officers of Battalions and Corps, not commanding, regimental guards are to turn out with shouldered arms once a day. Regimental guards or armed parties meeting the Commanding officer of the Corps are to salute him in passing.

30. When General Officers in uniform, or persons entitled to a salute, pass in rear of a guard, the officer in command is to cause his men to fall in and stand with shouldered arms, facing to their proper front ; but no drum is to beat nor bugle to sound. When such officers pass guards while in the act of relieving, both guards are to salute receiving the word of command from the senior officer present with them.

31. When garrison or other guards proceeding to or from their posts, meet the field officer of the day, they are to salute him in passing.

32. Guards are to get under arms at all times when armed parties approach their posts ; and when such parties are commanded by officers, they are to present arms and beat a ruffle or sound a flourish, officers saluting, but they are not to pay compliments nor to turn out as a matter of compliment after the "Retreat" has been sounded. Guards should stand to their arms while unarmed parties commanded by officers pass their posts. The manner in which guards are
