

Copy came to hand, and had read with much interest the report of the "Manning" Case, and was much pleased to see that your Father had been so successful. We live just across the street from the Parliament Buildings in which there is a very nice Reading Room containing most of the principal papers of the Country, and some of the United States, the London Times etc and I go in there very frequently to see the papers, and it was there that I saw first the report of this Case, & when I read it, I resolved to write your Father and Congratulate him: this I have not done yet, but you will please offer him my hearty Congratulations.

I was glad to hear all that you told me about your work at school, and also about the Church. I was sorry to hear of Mr. Manning's death. I wish Mr. H.

I have a very good Bible Class here, and enjoy my work very much and like the people; but I do not forget my Class in Berlin nor the Congregation of St Andrew's Ch.

I was preaching last evening on that passage in Mark which tells us of the Young man who came running to Jesus and asked Him what he should do to get eternal life. You
