Ottawa, 22nd October 1919.

Gentlemen,-

With reference to your letter of the 6th instant, in connection with the issue of a patent for the right of way of the Comex Logging Railway Company through the Pentledge Indian reserve No. 2, with which you forwarded a corrected plan, I beg to return to you herewith the said plan and to request that you have the Registrar, in whose office this plan or the plan of which this is a part is registered, place thereon a certificate stating it to be a true copy of the plan or of part of the plan registered in his office and quoting the registration number of such plan.

On the receipt of this information a correct description can be readily made and a new patent issued to the Company.

Your obedient servant,

Assistant Deputy and Secretary.
