

With the Author's Compliments.

1. A Case of Fusiform Dilatation of the Oesophagus without Intrinsic Stenosis.

2. A Case of Oesophagotomy for Foreign Body.—Recovery.

Illustrated.

BY

GEORGE A. PETERS, M.B., F.R.C.S. Eng.

Associate Professor of Surgery and Clinical Surgery, University of Toronto; Surgeon, Toronto General Hospital; Surgeon, Hospital for Sick Children; Surgeon, National Association for Consumption.

TORONTO :

REPRINTED FROM THE MARCH CANADA LANCET

1901