- tion of good magistrates. Cost of education in common and district schools should be left to the provincial legislature but the greater institution should not be neglected. The good effect of these from various points of view. Improvement in the class of settlers arriving. How the Crown lands should be disposed of; by his plan the sum advanced for improvements would be repaid in five years. Instances the case of Ops as an example of how the plan would work and argues that no land should be given except on terms of residence and that officers entitled to grants might have charge of the townships in which they are placed. Proposes a gradual increase to the Legislative and Executive Councils. It is scarcely possible to make the militia an effective force; how it might be arranged; other suggestions. Page 261
