

II
Reply to several Pamphlet.

REV. SIR,

I ACKNOWLEDGE the receipt of your letter, "THE DISSESSON OF EPISCOPAL GOVERNMENT," to be a reply to the reasons which were produced in candour bound to produce conviction. I am glad to see that you make no excessive claims you make for the government.

In order to create a small compass of style, which, though of severity, is not a mere cavative of angry feelings, I have expressed, as you are striving to improve that, in writing the essence of a wrathful

It is not so well known that England does not enter into its ministry formed by presbyterian episcopal government as I know, it has authorized official churches is scriptural never unchurched "the pure word of