

the charge of the parish, provide the Book of Common Prayer, the Bible, a book for the Communion Table, and a Book of Offices, of such kind as may be approved by the Minister.

2. (81.) There shall be a Font of stone in every Church, so soon as can be conveniently provided; the same to be set in the ancient usual places; in which only Font the Minister shall baptize publicly.

3. (82.) A convenient and seemly Table shall be provided in every Church for the celebration of the Holy Communion; and covered in time of Divine Service, with a covering of silk or other decent stuff, such as shall be thought fit by the Bishop, if any question be made of it, and with a fair linen cloth at the time of the Ministration, as becometh that Table: and the Ten Commandments shall be set up at the east end of every Church, where the people may best see and read the same; and other chosen sentences written upon the walls of the said Churches; and likewise a convenient seat for the Minister to read service in. All these to be done at the charge of the parish.

4. (83.) The Churchwardens, at the common charge of the parishoners in every Church, shall provide a comely and decent Pulpit, to be set in a convenient place within the same, by the discretion of the Bishop or Archdeacon, (if any question do arise); and to be there seemly kept for the preaching of God's Word.

5. (85.) The Churchwardens shall take care and provide that the Churches be well and sufficiently repaired, and so from time to time kept and maintained, that the windows be well glazed, and that the floors be kept plain and even, and all things there in such orderly and decent sort, without dust, or any thing that may be either noisome or unseemly, as best becometh the House of God. The like care they shall take that the Church-yards be well and sufficiently repaired, fenced and maintained with walls, rails or pales, at the common charge of the parishoners.
