

It has obtained the appointment of Women Factory Inspectors for factories and workshops where women are employed, in the Provinces of Quebec and Ontario.

It has obtained the extension of the provisions of the Factory Act to shops and factories in Ontario as regards the supervision of women workers.

It has obtained the appointment of women on the Boards of School Trustees in New Brunswick, and the amendment of the School Act so that they may be elected in British Columbia and Alberta. It also compiled a report on the regulations and methods of electing members of School Boards in all the seven Provinces, in which much variety exists.

It has brought about very desirable changes in the arrangements for women prisoners in various places.

It has organized in various centres Boards of Associated Charities, or other systems of co-operation in the relief of distress, and has circulated a valuable paper on the problem of the unemployed.

Through its Local Councils it has established Hospitals in some of its smaller centres.

It originated the idea of the Victorian Order of Nurses, and has taken a leading part in its establishment in different centres.

It has helped to organize classes of Domestic Science.

It has spread sanitary knowledge, especially by means of Health Talks for Mothers given by physicians, and has formed Mothers' Clubs in some places.

It has held an inquiry all over the country into the circulation of impure literature, and has been able to do something to lessen it, as well as to warn parents and teachers as to the very great danger that exists in this direction. It has secured legislation on the subject and has encouraged the circulation of healthy and interesting literature.

It instituted inquiries into the conditions surrounding working women in several centres, and urged on its members various methods of working for their amelioration.

It conducted an inquiry in all the Provinces into the Laws for the Protection of Women and Children, and laid certain recommendations before the Ministers of Justice, which they adopted when bringing in amendments to the Criminal Code.

It is earnestly concerning itself in the care and treatment