Braves Walked Right In, Turned Around and Walked Right Out Again

SKETERS GROW WEAKER

Royals Had Easy Time With Tail Enders Yesterday—Football Men to the Front—Amateur Golf Championship.

The Braves left the leadership by the same door that entered after a short stay of twenty-four hours in the jolly of India. The victory over the Phillies on Wednesday, while the Dodgers were trimming the Giants, enthroned the Stallions Club and a defeat by the Quaker City nine, while the Giants whaled Brooklyn twice, pulled them down from their high estate yesterday.

While Alexander was hit fairly freely he held the Braves scoreless till the ninth, when a rally gave them four runs, three too few to tie the score. At that the visitors outlast the Phillies 13 to 11.

The Skaters seem to be in no danger of losing last position. They grow weaker as the season goes on. Yesterday the Royals beat them 9 to 1. Had Madden shown a little more "pep" it would have been a shut-out for Mason, but the backstop allowed him to steal second and third where it was a short safe journey to the plate as Eschen's single.

Again yesterday players of highest rank were the survivors in the match play for the United States Golf Association amateur championship over the links of the Elkwood Country Club, completing the third round.

Jerome D. Travers, of Upper Montclair, present title-holder, won by 6 up over W. P. Seely, of Brooklawn. Francis Quinn, former national open champion, was also an easy winner, defeating Robert A. Gardner, of Hinsdale, a former amateur champion, on the eleventh green of the afternoon round, 9 up.

The veteran, Walter J. Travis, of Garden City, another former amateur champion, and W. C. Fowkes, of Oakmont, title-holder in 1911, survived their difficulties. Each was forced to an extra hole, Travis

It is expected that Queen's University will put a good Varsity team on the gridiron this fall. Prof. Lindsay Malcolm will be the coach. He is a captain in the Queen's Engineering Corps and volunteered for overseas service, but Prof. Alexander Macphail, commanding the Queen's Corps, will be the only officer to go. Prof. Malcolm will aid Queen's against University of Toronto and McGill University.

PRICES ARE VERY IRREGULAR IN THE RAW SILK MARKET

No Cable From Yokohama Yesterday, That Market Being Closed by Holiday—Expect Further Scarcity of Supplies in September Because of Deranged Credits.

Cable information from the producing raw silk markets yesterday was almost negligible, the Yokohama market being closed by a holiday, and the reports from other centres being irregular, as it has been for some weeks. The only market heard from by some large importers was Shanghai, which reported further weakness in steam filatures. Chops such as Biliken were offered at Shanghai at $7.75 per pound, it was said.

The local market continues in an extremely irregular condition, prices for spot silk and futures varying as much as 15 and 20 cents a pound, depending on credit and the difference in view taken of the market by different importers. Transactions are clearly of an individual character, giving no basis on which to state what the market really is.

There apparently has not been quite the scarcity in spot silk for the past week, as was evident for several weeks before, but importers say that in September the same pinch in supplies will be felt through inability to arrange credits on the part of many importers. This important side of the raw silk import trade is reported to be as unsettled and difficult as ever.

Prices quoted on spot Japan silk by one leading house yesterday were as follows:

Ex. Ex. crack chops $4.50
Ex. Ex. ordinary 4.30
Best 1 to extra 4.05

Kansai No. 1 4.00
Sinhua No. 1 3.95

For November delivery quotations of this house were said to be 40 cents under spot quotations.

As stated above, however, there are wide differences in price on both spot and future silk, Sinhua No. 1 being quoted, it was said, for spot delivery as low as $3.85 to $3.90 per pound.

In another part of the market the following quotations were given on Japan silk for November:

Ex. Ex. crack chops $3.95-$4.00
Ex. Ex. ordinary 3.70-3.75
Best No. 1 to extra 3.55-3.60

Kansai No. 1 3.45-3.50
Sinhua No. 1 3.40-3.45

The greatest care is being taken by the relief committee of the Montreal Patriotic Fund in order to eliminate bogus or undue claims. In some cases the wives of comparatively well-to-do volunteers apparently expect that the Fund should keep them in the ameliority as they were before. This, of course, is out of the question, the aim of the committee being to provide against actual destitution. If funds permit (and that will depend largely upon the success of the special "Campaign Week" commencing September 14th), an endeavor will be made to ensure an income of forty-five dollars a month to families consisting of a wife and four children, other relief being in proportion. Each case is being carefully investigated by personal visits to the homes of those applying for relief—a necessary procedure, as in many cases these home conditions have been found to be deeply distressing and requiring immediate relief. In some cases the wives of British reservists wish to go to relatives in the Old Country, and for these a transportation fund will be available. Before the passage, however, is provided, the Committee requires a guarantee from the relatives in England that the family will be welcome and will be adequately provided for.

Some of the wives left by reservists have rooms to rent. A register of such rooms is being kept by the Relief Committee, which is also anxious to know of Montreal households which require sewing or other suitable work. Free legal aid is provided by this Committee and an urgent request is made for doctors who will volunteer their services without charge for cases of sickness.

In order to prevent confusion, it should be made clear that financial contributions should be sent, not to the Relief Committee, but to the hon. treasurer of the Montreal Patriotic Fund, whose address is 142 Notre Dame Street West.

The National Brotherhood Council, the members of which recently toured Canada in connection with the annual convention, has performed a remarkable voice-raise. At a meeting of the council, Arthur Henderson, the Labor member, offered to resign his office as president-elect because he had joined the Parliamentary Brotherhood movement. He feared that this might compromise the Brotherhood movement, one of its main principles being international peace. Harry Jeffs, the president, in supporting Mr. Henderson's action, said that his own son, a Government official in Saskatchewan, was coming with the Canadian contingent. The International Brotherhood had no chance while Prussian militarism ruled. The council agreed unanimously in upholding Mr. Henderson as a recruiting agent.

NEWS OF WORLD TOLD IN BRIEF

Ottawa Hears Encouraging News from the British War Office Regarding Conditions in Europe

TURKEY DECLINES REQUEST

Will Not Allow United States Cruiser to Carry Gold to Constantinople As Dardanelles Is Mine-Perilous Brotherhood and Warlike Officer.

Good news from the War Office has reached Ottawa by cable. The message contained official confirmation of the report of a great Russian victory at Lemberg with the capture of many troops and a large number of guns. It is only a matter of time, says the despatch, before the Russian army arrives at Vienna. Koenigsberg, in East Prussia, has been surrounded.

The message contained also reassuring mention of the position of the Allies in France. They are described as having had "good success."

Turkey has declined to grant the request of the United States for permission to send the cruiser North Carolina through the Dardanelles to Constantinople to deliver $50,000 in gold deposited in Washington for the relief of Americans in the Ottoman Empire.

The grand visir has informed the American Government that the waters of the Dardanelles have been mined, and that it would be unsafe for a vessel as large as the North Carolina to go through the Straits. He declared also that it might establish a precedent for the passage of other foreign warships, and suggested that the American naval yacht Scorpion, on duty constantly in Turkish waters, along with other light vessels, that serve foreign missions, be sent to sea to meet the North Carolina.

The Turkish mobilization on the Persian boundary is slow. Many Christians and Kurds have refused to join the movement. The Turk sear forcibly compelling all persons of military age.

There has been a serious conflict between Turks and Armenians at Bitlis, in Turkish Armenia.

The parliamentary committee of the Trades Union Congress has issued a manifesto expressing approval of the efforts which the Labor members in the House of Commons are making, in conjunction with the representatives of other parties, to stimulate recruiting.

The manifesto states that in the event of the voluntary system of military service proving inadequate at the present time, the need would result in greatly strengthening the advocacy of compulsory service. Accordingly, the manhood of the nation should rally to the defense of the country in such numbers as will demonstrate to the world that a free people can rise to the supreme heights of great sacrifice without the whip of conscription.

A Russian army of 12,000 men, transported from Archangel, Russia, was landed at Aberdeen, on the east coast of Scotland, on August 27, and were conveyed on special trains to Harwich, Grimby and Dover, where transports were waiting to take them to Ostend, in Belgium, according to officers and passengers of the Cunard liner Mauretania, which reached New York last night from Liverpool.
