

THEY ALL COUNT.

Blessings on the little folks who see the small things that need to be done, and then do them cheerfully and willingly!

"I wonder what my daughter has been doing to day?" Mrs. Sutton said to Susie, as the little girl ran out on the porch to greet her mother when the latter returned home from the city.

"I didn't do anything very much," Susie began smilingly.

"Wait there!" interrupted old Mrs. Sutton from her rocker back of the grape vine. "I know somebody who held the clothes-pins for Mary this morning; I watched her from the porch. The same somebody left her book and went to the store to order sugar, and there was no complaint about doing it. She helped her grandmother to wind a skein of wool, and did a dozen other things to help along with the work."

"Such little things!" Susie laughed. "I don't count them."

"I do, and your mother does," Mrs. Sutton replied lovingly.

And so do other mothers and grandmothers.

—To love Jesus means to trust Him always. Tell Him your needs, just as if He were in the room with you in person, and He will help you.

THE LIFE OF DR. CHASE.

As a compiler of Chase's Recipe Book, his name is familiar in every household in the land, while as a physician his works on simple formulas left an imprint of his name that will be handed down from generation to generation. His last great medicine, in the form of his Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, is having the large public patronage that his Ointment, Pills and Catarrh Cure are having. Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is especially adapted for all Bronchial and Asthmatic troubles.

—To give a kindly hand to the many who long to rise, but who can not rise without; to inspire hope, the very soul of moral recovery, into those who are still fettered and in darkness —this is to do Christ's work in the world.

How many people are ashamed to go into company on account of their foul smelling breath caused from catarrh or cold in the head? If they would study their own interests they would soon have sweet breath like their neighbours. There is one sure cure for Catarrh and that is Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure. Give one blow through the blower and you get relief immediately. Price, including blower, 25 cents.

—The best way to be thankful is to so live and act that all our actions show forth our gratitude.
