Prebendary Airy, on his completion of twenty-five years' service as vicar of St. John's, Torquay, has been presented by his parishioners with a purse of £305, a silver tea kettle being given to Mrs. Airy.

A wrought-iron screen of considerable interest and beauty has been erected in St. Paul's Church, Lorrismore Square, S.E., to commemorate the episcopate of Dr. Talbot. The screen is crowned with a series of heraldic shields pointing to the various localities connected with the life's work of the Bishop.

On his eightieth birthday the Rev. George Maberly Smith, rural dean of Tonbridge and honorary canon of Canterbury, who has been rector of Penshurst since 1878, and was previously curate there for thirteen years, has been presented by Lord de L'Isle and Dudley, on behalf of the parishioners, with a gold watch and chain. Mrs. Smith was given at the same time a diamond and ruby pendant.

Viscount Halifax lately dedicated at Holy Trinity Church, Kensington-Gore, a marble memorial to the late Mr. G. F. Bodley, R.A., designed and decorated by two of his pupils, Messrs. Warren and Bernard Smith, as part of a larger scheme for a noble reared designed by the deceased. Lord Halifax said the church was one of the latest and happiest works of his dear friend. The memorial is a lifelike presentment of Mr. Bodley taken in his D.C.L. robes.

Liverpool Cathedral Building Committee have received, from an anonymous donor, £2,000 for a window in the south transept.

People who talk so much about finding God everywhere, very often end by finding Him nowhere, and the whole of their life becomes secular, profane, because they would not consecrate their life in God's own way.—The Bishop of Derby.

Inscriptions on a new peal of bells, dedicated by the Bishop of Knaresborough, in the tower of St. Alkelda's Church, Middleham, Yorkshire, read respectively:—"We are all cast to the glory of God," "I ring for God and King," "I call to worship," "I call to prayer," "What I give I have," "St. Alkelda's name I keep," "Hear my voice, O God," and "Time passes, God calls."
