

“ bled in our legislative Capacities, to express to the illustrious Son “ of our beloved King the most cordial Declarations of the Loyalty “ and firm Attachment of the whole People of Nova-Scotia, to His “ Majesty’s sacred Person, Family and Government; and we humbly “ request that your Royal Highness will be pleased to represent our “ most dutiful Sentiments to His Majesty in the Manner most accep“ table.

“ The Education chosen for your Royal Highness and your very “ eminent professional Merit afford to His Majesty’s loyal Subjects the “ most pleasing Satisfaction; not only as evincing His Majesty’s con“ tinued attention and Regard to the Welfare of His People, but as “ adding further additional Security to the Empire, and the delightful “ Prefage of future Glory and increased Renown to the illustrious “ House of Hanover.

“ That our Most Gracious Sovereign and His Royal Consort may “ long continue happily to reign in the Hearts of all their Subjects,
 “ and that your Royal Highness may be distinguished as the most ce“ lebrated of your Profession are the ardent and united Wishes of the “ People of Nova-Scotia.

Agreed to by the House.

Which being read, was unanimously agreed to by the House, and thereupon resolved, That this House feels itself highly honoured by the Condescension of His Royal Highness, and will cheerfully provide for defraying the Expences of such Entertainment.

The House adjourned to 11 o’Clock To-Morrow.

Saturday 3d November, 1787.

Mr. Day moved for leave to bring in a Bill for the Amendment of an Act to prevent vexatious Law Suits and cross Actions, and that the same should be read a first Time on Wednesday next; leave given.

The House adjourned to Monday at 1 o’Clock.

Monday 5th November, 1787.

House attend His Royal Highness
Prince William
Henry.

The House met at one o’Clock, and his Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor having signified to the House, that His Royal Highness would receive the Address of the Legislature at the Government-House at two o’Clock; the House adjourned to attend him at landing, and to wait on Him therewith.

To which His Royal Highness was pleased to make the following ANSWER;

GENTLEMEN,

His Royal High-ness’s Answer to the Address of the Le-gisature.

“ I T affords me the most heartfelt Satisfaction to receive so loyal “ and dutiful an Address from the Lieutenant Governor, His Ma-“ jesty’s Council and the House of Assembly in the Province of Nova-“ Scotia