Referring to Mr. W. Brint Andergon, to whose success we alluded in Saturday's issue, it is interesting to note that his father, Mr. W. E. Anderson, of Ameliasburg, graduated at Ontario Business College thirty years ago, under Principal J. W. Johnson; his brother Dorland, who is doing well in the West, graduated six years afo; and his sister, Mise Evelyn, has it completed the Shorthand and Typewwriting Course and has been placed through the influence of Mr. Johnson in the office of the Trenton Electric Co. of this city. In the same office in Montreal, in which young Mr. Anderson is now chief accountant, there is another O.B.C. graduate: Ant, there is another O.B.C. graduate: Antiple of the opening of the American market to Canadian cattle there are, Mr. Ballantyne goes on, fewer dairy cows in Ontario and Quebec now than there were a year ago, and consequently a further shrinkage in production later on. Finally, although Mr. Ballantyne coes not mention this fact, the opening of the American market to milk and cream will cause the sending of a lot of these r authorities on the market end of

In the morning he spoke in Holloway street church and in the afternoon at looking after his work for another the Baptist church.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian courch was crowded to the doors last caning. Mr I am delivered an address during the service and conducted an after meeting for people of all churches.

Before ratering upon his sermon at St. Andrews he gave a little personal history. This is Mr Lane's first appearance in this part of Canada. For the past infteen years he has been engaged in evangelistic work in London Frigland with the Federation of the Evangelical churches. Most of his time has been confined to the British lists. The purpose of his visit to Canada and the United States is to

Sch Troubles 1: Quickly Rubbe

Away by Powerful Remedy.

If, you have any muscles that are trequent-town and weak, that are frequent-town and weak, that are frequent-town and mean any psinful swellings it or heaven, which is the very sort of trouble that Nerviline is noted for curing quickly. 'I have proved Nerviline and counterly and swelling. It followed an inputy I received in my left leg and counterly and counterly and discomfort. The muscles were strained and sore and no o-ther tomedy gave the ease and comfort 1 got from rubbing on Nerviline. There is a soothing, pain-rubely gover about Nerviline that touched the root of my trouble. Nerviline reduced the pain, if brought my limb back to perfect condition." VACRANCY CASES

James Montgomery, a Scotch youth who has been in the country for fifteen months, is evidently "up against it." On Saturday he went into a Chinese restaurant and got a meal but did not pay for the reason that he did not have the coin He told an officer that he had beat his way here by train from Torontd.

Wm. Thorton who had been with Montgomery came to the station for shelter and was locked up.

Both were found guilty of vagran y and remanded one week for reference. The short was up today for sentence, but as he had not received recommendations he was sent back on a week's remand. He said he did not would worry to death.
