The following officers of Corinthian Lodge No. 27, A. F. & A. M., were installed last evening by W. Brother George Hering, acting D. D. G. M., assisted by W. Brother Frank Bristow.

HOCKEY NOTES

TO STUDY MEDICINE

John Bluntish, the well known nurse and masseur, will leave Rossland within a few days for the coast, where he will attend collegiate institute for the purpose of taking the matriculation examinations next summer.

BOY AWAY

Little Frank Miller, who discovered his father in Greenwood, or whose father er learned that he was in Rossland by reading a paragraph in the Miner, has been sent to Greenwood. The lad's father sent a ticket to Rossland for the boy on the day the lad arrived here, but there was an error about the lad calling for his transportation.

MR. VEDDER'S DEATH

The body of the late Charles W. Vedder, who was shot at Greenwood, was taken through the city today for interment in Spokane. The remains will be taken over at Spokane by the Masonic lodge, of which order Mr. Vedder was a member.

NOTHING NEW

J. J. Campbell, commercial manager of the Hill smelter at Nelson, was in the city for several hours yesterday afternoon, on his way to the Canadian Smelting works at Trail. Asked as to the recent developments in connection with the silver-lead situation, Mr. Campbell stated that Walter H. Aldridge's statement as published in the Miner of Sunday covered all the points of interest that had developed as yet.

UP TO BURLY

Charlie Goff has taken steps to force Nick Burly's hand in the matter of a deposit of $200 for a contest. In putting up the money Goff said: "Burly has made his talk. Now let him cover this forfeit and we can arrange a match. I will meet him in Spokane if we can pull off the match here, or I will meet him anywhere in the state. I will go on for a share of the gate receipts and for any side bet up to $500 each. I am confident I can defeat Burly. It's up to him now to make his talk good."

VELVET TO SHIP

Shipments will be commenced from the Velvet mine on Thursday next. The first lot of ore to be sent to the Northport smelter will be a consignment of 200 tons, which will be followed up by regular shipments during the winter. Early in the present year 563 tons of ore were sent out from the mine, but shipments were suspended until the present time, when good sleighing will expedite transportation between the mine and the Red Mountain railroad. The Le Roi stables of Rossland have the contract to move the ore.

BIG DEAL

An interesting mining deal was closed in a local broker's office a day or two ago when the broker unloaded 9,000 shares, fully paid up and non-assessable, in a "mine" located within the 100 mile limit, upon an acquaintance. The consideration was a dime in cash and three beer checks.

RUNAWAY

The liveliest runaway of the season took place on Columbia avenue yesterday afternoon when a horse named "Alex," owned by J. F. Linburg, took a notion to bolt. Starting at the stable, the animal with a light cutter attached, galloped to Columbia avenue, jumped clean over Andie Anderson's express sleigh without damaging either outfit, and then took the south side of Columbia avenue, heading west. Down the sidewalk the frightened animal ran at top speed, the sleigh banging along at its heels. Several score of people were on the sidewalk and there was a hurrying for doors. The runaway kept to the sidewalk from the Allan house to a point near the Davis street bridge, then took the road to Monita street, turning east on Le Roi avenue and being captured on Spokane street without coming to any damage.

ATTACK ON MR. HOOPER

His Assailant Guilty of Both Falsehood and Malice.

Richard Hooper, a miner who is one of the contractors in the Centre Star shaft, has been singled out for a malicious attack by an anonymous writer. In the evening paper. Legal proceedings would be taken in the matter if it was thought the publication would be good for the cause, but in the absence of such recourse, Mr. Hooper is satisfied to have his version of the story appear in the Miner. The incident at Ishpeming, Mich., was a jest among a party of his friends, with whom he was in entire sympathy and on the best of terms. At the time he was not working in the mine affected by the strike, but was working with a small exploration party that was not called away from work at any stage of the contest. The expedition to the town well was organized in pure fun, and was thus regarded by all who witnessed it, everybody fraternizing during and subsequent to the incident. Mr. Hooper believes that the lying attack on him was instituted by a couple of men who came to Rossland on his recommendation after conducting themselves in such a manner in Michigan as to effectually bar them from ever obtaining employment in the camps where they are known. He offers to forfeit $50 if it can be established that at any time he worked in mines affected by a strike until he took his old position in the Centre Star. In connection with his movements in Rossland, it may be stated that what assistance he obtained here while out of work for five months at the mandate of the union does not represent a tithe of the amount he has paid into the organization from year to year, and that having given up his position to satisfy the thirst for notoriety on the part of the union officials he was perfectly justified in accepting the return of a slight portion of the funds he had paid in. Finally Mr. Hooper concluded, as have many thoroughly experienced miners, that the agitators had misled the rank and file of the organization, and that there was no possible chance of success. Having reached this conclusion, it was only natural that as a sensible man he should take the necessary steps to protect his family and returned to work.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

of Trail, gave a very successful ball in the opera house at Trail Friday, the occasion being the celebration of St. John's day. There were about 300 guests present, among them being several from Rossland. The hall was most tastefully decorated with flags, bunting and evergreens. The ceiling was so arranged as to give the idea of being in a forest of beautiful trees instead of in a hall. The room was illuminated by electric lights trimmed with red shades, casting a soft glow over the scene. The best effect was entirely due to the untiring efforts of Messrs. Armit, Fraser, McFarlane, Peverly, Messdames Wilkes, Schofield and Peterson. The gentlemen who assisted the ladies were Messrs. Atkinson, Kortright, Schofield, Conklin, Barclay and Devitt. The music, which was furnished by Chapman's orchestra of five pieces, was certainly the best ever furnished for a dance in the city. All the latest productions being rendered in excellent style.

The costumes of the ladies were decidedly smart in their elegance. Among the many, Mrs. Schofield wore Irish poplin and Duchesse lace with pearl ornaments; Mrs. Sullivan, black girdle, with diamond ornaments; Miss Black, velvet and sequins; Mrs. Strong, blue nun's veiling; Miss Fraser, white organza; Miss Bessie Fraser, white organza; Miss Ogden, white organza trimmed with black bebe ribbon; Miss Mary Haverty, white organza and valenciennes lace; Miss Gerty McFarlane, white organza with pearl ornaments; Miss Berg, black poplin; Miss Jones, white and pink chiffon; Mrs. Wilkes, mauve crepon and beautiful roses; Mrs. McDonald, pink satin; Miss Mabel Coleman, white muslin and pearls; Mrs. McCahey, black silk sequin net; Mrs. Hayes, white silk and chiffon; Mrs. Brown, black silk; Mrs. Coleman, mauve with valenciennes lace; Mrs. G. McKay, white organza and flowers; Mrs. Hart, black satin; Miss Thom, red organza.

Among the ladies from Rossland were: Miss Smith, in pink silk; Miss Jessie Robinson, fawn silk with ornaments; Miss Mabel Stephens, lavender organza; Miss Eva Hering, pink silk; Mrs. G. McKay, A. Dempsey and J. Netterfield.

The committees were: Reception committee—J. Schofield, W. J. Devitt, Walter Tower, Hall, music and light—D. H. Chapman, W. Tower, R. Coleman, Printing—W. Munter, W. K. Esling, Refreshments—Dr. Hayes, Dr. Conklin, J. Schofield.

J. Luncheon was served in the banquet hall from 10:30 to 1 o'clock. The menu was a credit to the caterers, Messrs. Peterson Bros., of the Crown Point hotel, and its excellence was amply attested by the justice done it by the guests. The floor was in excellent condition, and the hall was comfortably heated. The success of the evening was due.

Mrs. J. G. Denison's "At Home" on Friday evening was, as usual, a decidedly pleasant affair. Two large parties drove out in sleighs, and the road being in very good shape the drive was thoroughly enjoyed. Mrs. Denison, who wore black satin, and Miss Denison, who was attired in white dotted Swiss, received their guests, among whom the following faces were seen: Messrs. Wadda, Ope, Burnett, Keating, Martin; Misses Johns, Boulton, Boutbee, Marshall, Robinson, Humphries, Kinnear and Renwick. Messrs. Morkul, Lave, Dewdney, Walker, Phipps, Ogle, Burnett, Dixon, Warren, Martin, Richardson, Cruickshank, Turnbull, Stewart, Wadda, Robinson, Renwick and Lave. The evening was a success. Mrs. Denison's "At Home" has become very popular during the past two years and are looked forward to every month by her host of friends.

On Monday last Miss Kinnear entertained the Euchre Club at what proved to be one of the most enjoyable meetings held so far this season. In comparison to a close with a very jolly dance, which was indulged in until an early hour. Among those present were: Mrs. J. T. Mackenzie, Mrs. C. S. Keating, Misses Boulton, Denison, Rose, Segers, Walker, Renwick, Martin, Whitney, Leverer, and Messrs. Dewdney, Phipps, Morkul, Cruickshanks, Stewart, Lave, Watson, Foster, Burnett, Martin, Walker, Rose, I. M. Smith, W. Hart-McHarg, Mr. Mosley of Spokane, and W. R. Dewdney of Grand Forks.

Mrs. John Stillwell Clute, Jr., was a hostess at a pleasant gathering on Thursday night at her home, Davis and Phoenix avenue. Euchre and ping-pong were the features of the evening's entertainment. Among the guests were: Misses Boulton, Boulton, Falding, Renwick and Walker; and Messrs. Renwick, Lave, Morkul, Stewart, Cruickshank, Turnbull, Martin, Walker and Phipps.

The Entre Nous Club will give a hop at Masonic hall on Tuesday evening when the old year will be danced out and the new year in. The officers of the club have not sent out the usual notices for the dance, but the majority of the members are acquainted with the fact and the balance are requested to accept this intimation in lieu of the regular notification.

Professor Graham is furnishing the music, and the function promises to be quite as successful as the preceding affairs under similar auspices.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker entertained a party of friends at a very pleasant whist party on Friday evening.

Mrs. M. E. King, of the Hotel Allan, will be at home to her friends on New Year's Day.

Frank Mendonhall, of Spokane, is spending a few days in the city on a business trip.

David Whiteside, barrister, of Phoenix, spent Christmas Day in Rossland, the guest of his brother, William J. Whiteside.

Mr. Lorne Campbell, general manager of the West Kootenay Power & Light company, entertained a number of Rossland and Nelson friends at dinner in the company's residence at Bonington Falls on Christmas day. The function was most pleasant.

Mrs. Charles F. Jackson is visiting Nelson friends this week.

Miss Segers will be the guest of Mrs. J. C. McKenzie for several weeks prior to her departure for her home in Edmonton.

While in the city on Monday last Major R. G. Edwards-Leckie, of the Canadian Mounted Infantry, was entertained by the members of the Le Roi events meal at dinner. Major Leckie wore the dress uniform of the Eighth Hussars at the function, which was in the nature of a farewell by his many Rossland friends.

The militiamen interested in the proposition to give a military dance at an early date are still working on the subject and are likely to bring it to a successful conclusion shortly.

NORTHERN PACIFIC STOCK.

An Injunction Against Retirement of the Preferred.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 31.—Judge Elliott of the district court of Hennepin county yesterday granted a temporary order restraining the officers of the Northern Pacific Railway company from retiring the preferred stock of that company. The order was issued on the application of Peter Power of New York, who holds a hundred shares of the common stock. It was supposed that the failure of the action brought in the New York courts by holders of preferred stock cleared away the last obstacle to the retirement of the preferred on January 1, leaving the Hill interests free to act.

It is inferred, although it does not so appear, that the present action is brought in behalf of the Harriman interests to prevent control passing out of his hands for another year, or until the legal standing of the Northern Securities company is settled. The claim is set up by Mr. Power in his suit that the retirement of the preferred stock is in violation of the agreement that is in force between the common stock and debenture bonds to be issued to effect the retirement of the preferred stock would become a lien upon the common stock, and thus work an injury to his property. It is understood that the block of 100 shares common not hitherto controlled and definitely located upon one side or the other—the Harriman people or the Hill-Morgan interests.

The restraining order will not only be served on the officials in Minnesota, but will be telegraphed to New York and served on the officials there.

THROWN INTO A SHAFT. Mysterious Murder of a Mine Superintendent in Arizona.

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 28.—A special to the Post from Cripple Creek says: Martin Gleason, 50 years of age, superintendent of the Wild Horse, Damon and Deadwood mines, was found dead today at the bottom of the Kalamazoo shaft, 500 feet below the surface of the ground. The body was horribly mangled.

The ground around the mouth of the shaft bore marks of a struggle, and it is evident that Gleason was murdered, although no motive for the crime is known. Gleason disappeared yesterday. The Woods Investment company, which owns a controlling interest of the mines which Gleason was superintendent, has offered $5000 reward for the capture of the murderer.

Dr. and Mrs. Kenning were the host and hostess at a pleasant little dinner on Christmas day. Covers were laid for ten, and the decorations were holly, mistletoe, evergreens and flags. A heavily laden tree was a feature of the evening which was thoroughly enjoyed.
