

BRITISH NEWS VIA THE MAIL BAG

Women Aids to Betting.

The unusual charge against two women of assisting in betting was heard at Coventry, on Monday when Helena Taylor was fined £30 and coists and her daughter Cissie £3 and costs.

Trail of the Herring

Aldeburgh fishermen who have been catching large numbers of whiting and codling with rod and line in the river Alde at Slaughden, Norfolk, have been surprised to find 12 miles from the sea herring attracted by their bait of lug (seashore) worms.

Death of Lady Baden-Powell

The death occurred at Cheltenham on Monday of Lady Baden-Powell, widow of Sir George Baden-Powell, M. P., who died fifteen years ago, and sister-in-law of the defender of Mafeking. She was a daughter of the late Alderman Charles Wilson of Cheltenham.

Eastbourne Winter Park

Devonshire Park, Eastbourne, the chief amusement centre, for the Eastbourne town council recently decided to purchase for £100,000, to remain open during the winter, following the strong representations made to the directors by a deputation of councillors and tradesmen.

A Kick About Coal Quality

is by no means a rare thing these times. But it is a rarity with us, because we take care to buy only the best grades of coal, as we know our customers would not buy from us any inferior qualities—not twice anyway. At it is our policy to keep our customers, we could not afford to give them any but the best coal, full weight, without dirt or rubbish and at a reasonable price.

F. H. Walsh
Coal and Wood Dealer,
Phone 345
Sole Agents Beaver Brand Charcoal

Cargo Falls Down Pit Shaft

Walbottle pit, near Newcastle, was stopped on Tuesday as the result of an accident to the cage. The hook or couplings snapped and a cage loaded with boxes of coal fell down the shaft into the dump. The cage was smashed. The men were brought to the bank by another cage.

Tossed by a Bullock

A bullock which was being driven through the streets of Gravenstead on Monday rushed at a man and tossed him through the plate glass window of an hotel. The man was bruised and cut.

The animal subsequently entered a shop, and was finally secured at the town pier after it had run through various thoroughfares.

Protest in Church.

During service at St. Mary Magdalene's, Taunton, a young woman left her seat and walked to the chancel rails, where she said: "I object to Canon Corfield (the vicar) being Mayor of Taunton." She was led out of the church. Canon Corfield was asked to become mayor, but he was found ineligible owing to his being a clergyman of the Church of England.

Towns Only Freeman.

An illuminated address was presented at Ashton on Monday night to Councillor William Kelsall, leader of the Liberal party, who is about to retire from active public life after thirty-eight years' service as a member of the Town Council. Later in the week Mr. Kelsall received the freedom of the borough. He is the only freeman of Ashton, the honor having only once previously conferred—upon the late Alderman Thos. Heginbottom.

School with Three Walls.

A school with one wall missing, known as the Knowie Open-air School for children of delicate health was opened in Bristol on Monday by the Lord Mayor, Mr. C. J. Lowe. The children will live in the open air as far as the climate allows and will learn gardening and light useful work in the morning, resting during the afternoon. The school will be carried on for two years by voluntary contributions. £2,500 having been already subscribed towards the £3,200 needed.

Daughter of Mrs. Gaskell.

The death has occurred at Manchester of Miss Margaret Gaskell, daughter of the famous novelist, Mrs. Gaskell. She had lived almost her whole life in the house in Plymouth-grove into which her father and mother had moved in 1850, and which became famous as a meeting-place for persons distinguished in art and letters. Miss Gaskell had been a friend of many of the great Victorian figures—Ruskin, Charlotte Bronte, Lord Troughton the poet—

"SNOW BABY" NOT ENGAGED TO MARRY, SHE SAYS

MISS MARIE PEARY

Miss Marie Peary, daughter of Robert E. Peary, civil engineer, U. S. N. retired, and known the world over as the "Snow Baby," is in New York after spending the summer and early autumn in a school at Geneva.

Miss Peary received the sobriquet of "Snow Baby" due to her birth in the winter quarters of the Arctic expedition on one of its long trips north. Mrs. Peary bravely accompanied her husband to the base of his expedition, and it was there the "Snow Baby" was born.

Immediately on the arrival of Mrs. Peary and her daughter an absolute denial was made of the engagement of the "Snow Baby" to Mr. McMillan, who is now in Crocker Land and who was with Mr. Peary on his expedition to the North Pole.

and had climbed the Alps with Leslie Stephen and the Winkworths, and with her sister Julia, had made the first crossing by a woman of the Morning Pass.

Corporal Killed.

Corporal Lissan, aged nineteen, of the 18th Hussars, stationed at Tidworth, Hampshire, was walking with his fiancée towards Andover on Sunday night when a member of the Royal Flying Corps, named Randall, who was riding a bicycle, collided with him, inflicting fatal injuries.

Guardian Charged With Arson

At Poole, on Tuesday, Shadrach Scott, of Upper Parkstone, a member of the Poole Guardians, was committed on bail to Dorset Assizes on a charge of having set fire to Heatherlands sub post office and to his own house, which is opposite. Evidence was given to show the accused insured his furniture in June last for £100.

Fire Brigade Resigns

At a meeting of the Seven Oaks Urban Council, on Tuesday the staff of the town fire brigade handed in their resignations as a protest against the alleged neglect of the council in not providing them with proper facilities and apparatus. They were called to a fire and could not leave the station for an hour after the call owing to the difficulty for getting horses for the engine.

Fruit Growing Profitable

"There is no more profitable business for the small holder than fruit growing," declared the speaker at a sound business lines," wrote Mr. Runciman, M.P. (president of the Board of Agriculture), to the secretary of the Kent Commercial Fruit Show, which opened on Tuesday at Maidstone. About thirty tons of fruit, chiefly apples, were on view.

Charge of Blackmail

Harold Chisnall, a collier, aged 20, who was formerly a boy scout and territorial, was bound over at Liverpool Assizes on Tuesday on a charge of blackmail. With a view to raising money for an outfit to enable him to go to sea, Chisnall demanded £30 from Mr. William Cox, a retired Ormskirk solicitor, in letters which were copied from a newspaper of a case in which a German waiter demanded money from Lord Rothschild.

Earl as Fireman

The Earl of Onslow, at the head of his own private fire brigade from Clendon Park, his Surrey seat, helped to fight an outbreak at West Clendon Church. Lord Onslow, who was wearing a ports coat, muffler,

ONE MORE ADDED TO THE LONG LIST

Of Women Who Owe Their Health to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. John Cabot Recommends Dodd's Kidney Pills to All Who Suffer from Backache, Headache and Nervousness.

WHITE HEAD PERCE, Que., Nov. 10.—(Special)—As a remedy for women Dodd's Kidney Pills hold an enviable place in the estimation of the people of Quebec, and Mrs. John Cabot, a highly-respected lady living here, adds her name to the long list of those who stand ready to tell of the good work they are doing. "My trouble," Mrs. Cabot states, "started from a cold, and I suffered for six years. I was already tired and nervous. I was greatly troubled with my back, and as time wore on neuralgia, rheumatism and Bright's disease added to my pains."

"I had dark circles under my eyes; I perspired freely with the slightest exertion, and my perspiration had an unpleasant odor."

"I could find nothing to relieve me till I started using Dodd's Kidney Pills. I can heartily recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to all who suffer from headache, and nervousness."

Nearly all women's troubles are caused by diseased or disordered kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills bring back youth to women by curing their kidneys.

at Wigton sale by an Oughterside farmer, and taken by road to their new home. During the night the animals escaped but instead of seeking their old homes, made their way back over eleven miles and through two towns to the auction mart, where they were found the next morning.

It appears that the mare's foal had been disposed of to another purchaser at the same sale, and it is believed that this accounted for the dam's return.

Who Is Lloyd George?

When a witness at Hull Quarter Sessions, on Monday, mentioned that a man received 40s. a week, "with fourpence off for Lloyd George," the Recorder said "Who is this Lloyd George?" "I don't know the gentleman," he remarked as he made notes of the evidence. "Fourpence was paid to somebody named George."

Old Man and His Tobacco

At Ballinrobe Quarter Sessions, an old man named Conlon, Bohoun, claimed 5s. 10d. from his sister-in-law, Mrs. Mulkee, and her husband, in lieu of tobacco, with which he said, she was bound to supply him. He stated, amid laughter, that she gave him a brand he couldn't smoke when he wanted a nice plug. Mrs. Mulkee said she gave him the money to get whatever kind he liked. He sang at night to annoy the house and in the day he gave abuse. (Laughter) The claim was dismissed, the plaintiff asking "amid laughter," "What about my arrears of plug?"

Wrecked Train in a Street

While a goods train of sixty wagons was being shunted at Lockwood, Yorkshire, on Tuesday night, a coupling broke, and 30 of the wagons dashed into the buffers at the dead end of a siding, and wrecked a signal cabin. The signalman, named Brackenbury jumped on the main line and was injured.

Two guards' vans and two wagons laden with coal fell into the roadway forty feet below, five other wagons hanging over the embankment.

A girl walking under a bridge had a narrow escape as the guards' van came toppling over.

Adventure with a Motor Car

A youth named James Casey, hotel "boots," was at Ballina, fined 1s. and ordered to pay £1 compensation for wilfully damaging a motor car belonging to Mr. R. B. Jennings. Mr. Huggard, solicitor, said the car was left at the railway station while the owner went to have a game of hockey. Casey got into the car but did not know how to drive it. He started it, however, and the car careered along the road, and finally, after running several times into the fences, Casey, in endeavoring to avoid a drove of cattle, swerved the car on one wheel and turned it somersault across the fence into a bog. The defendant said his wages were 5s. a week. Mr. Huggard: "Do you get tips?"—Defendant: "Hardly ever. The last one I got was from yourself, sir." (Laughter).

OFFER LLOYD-GEORGE $100,000 LECTURE JOB

American Firm Would Have Him Follow Bryan and Speak in America

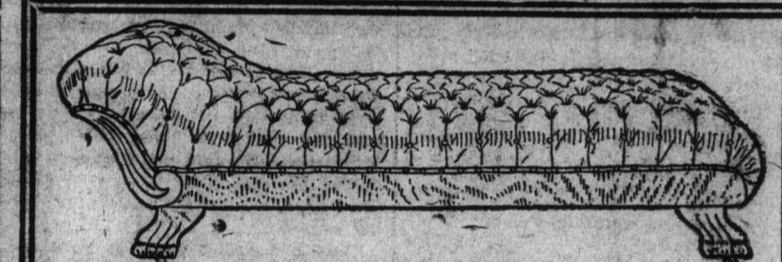

LONDON.—A renewed endeavor is being made to induce Mr. Lloyd George to visit the United States. Last year the Welsh-American Eisteddfod at Pittsburgh, but the present offer has come in an even less attractive guise. Encouraged by the success which has followed the efforts of Mr. Bryan on the lecture platform, an American firm of managers has offered Mr. Lloyd George $100,000 if he will take the lecture platform after the manner of Mr. Bryan.

Boot and Shoe Men Face Big Difficulty

Englishmen Want to Invade United States But Seem Blocked.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The boot and shoe makers of England, who have organized a campaign to capture some of the trade of America now that the duty has been abolished on their goods, realize that in one way they are handicapped. This is in respect to cheap leather. Until America took off the duty on hides, England was the one free market for this raw material of the boot and shoe

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

FURNITURE

In all patterns, in all styles of finish, in Quartered Oak or Mahogany or Gumwood; in the latest finish, at the latest prices. We handle the latest styles of all kinds of furniture at a small profit. Drop in at CLIFFORD'S BIG FURNITURE HOUSE when passing. Obliging sales people to serve you.

CLIFFORD'S BIG FURNITURE HOUSE
78 Colborne Street Telephone No. 15

DOCTORS Who Use Automatic Telephones

Ashton, E. C.	287	Nichol, W. H.	910
Barber, G. W.	468	Palmer, R. H.	236
Bier, T. H.	322	Robinson, J. W.	464
Frank, H. R.	310	Sager, D. S.	187
Gamble, J. B.	277	Secord, L.	237
Hanna, F.	307	Secord, E. R.	237
Marquis, J. A.	212

The List Will Be Continued Monday
Canadian Machine Telephone Co., Ltd.

Xmas Dolls

We have just received a very large consignment of Xmas Dolls direct from the German Manufacturer, but cannot spare the room for them, so have placed a lot of the $1.20, $1.25 and $1.35 Dolls on sale at

75c each

so we can clear them out quick. SEE OUR WINDOWS.

J. L. SUTHERLAND

Wall Papers, Room Mouldings and Window Shades

Buck's Radiant Home Heaters

Buck's Crown Brilliant Heaters
Buck's Happy Thought Ranges
"Things of beauty and a joy forever"—We have them in hundreds of styles and sizes, suitable for any demand. We have also 25 heaters and ranges rebuilt and in fine condition, every one guaranteed, price $15 to $30 on payments if desired.

TURNBULL & CUTCLIFFE, Ltd.
Hardware and Stove Merchants
The Big Store on the Corner Open Evenings

STOVES! STOVES!!

FOR MILD WEATHER—
Gas Heaters, Oak Heater, Oil Heaters
BUT THE ZERO WEATHER STOVE IS—
"BUCK'S RADIANT HOME"
A base burner and double heater attachment stove, with the largest radiator surface of any heater. Will hold fire longer and can be operated with less coal than other stoves.
WE SAY IT MAKE US PROVE IT
W. S. STERNE
Both Phones 120 MARKET ST. Open Evenings

FIRST SECTION

FORTY-FOUR

LARKIN OVE

Canadian Press News
NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The Tribune from L. James Larkin has carried threat to bring his "fief" England. He crossed the net last night, and is no pool. He opens his camp has for its object a 60 of British trade unionism of the Dublin strikers, at tomorrow, when he will meet in Free Trade Hall. There is every indication that the more sober unionist leaders will do to prevent their followers.

OWEN SOUND HER L

Some Tragic With the Family So

OWEN SOUND, Nov. 14.—Gloom and gloom have entered the hearts of Owen Sound home-owners, with the sinking of so many vessels, with the loss of life. The intelligence of the loss of the Wexford with all to Mrs. Richard Loughie, the second engineer of the craft, in the form of a telegram from the Western Company, Toronto. The message was prostrating. The Consoler Also S. To console with her came Liam Buckley, Fourth Ave. The morning following intelligence of the loss of the James Caruthers, with all including second engineer, Buckley, and narrow escape of the Buckley home, Caruthers' mother and one of her daughters, and hope for the return of the father. All Mrs. Buckley's relatives in Glasgow, Buckley's aged father, who lives at Leith, where also resides the mother.

WARNING IS ISSUED AGAINST PILE

Souvenir Fiends to be ed as Thieves—Covering Bod

GODERICH, Nov. 13.—Wreck Receiver Balby issuing respecting the pilfering of wrecks on the shore of Goderich. Hector Hayes Officer at the port, criticized, stating there was no wreckage, except by the fiends who gathered pieces and any little things that peel to their morbid curiosity to come. The souvenir fiends is to be treated as a real threat. Another rumor which some credence amongst which was promptly denied was that the waves had done to such an extent in some bodies were being covered bodies recovered at Tupper were half buried in sand, expected that identification will be much more rapid next few days. All the fiends apparently lost are the lake ports. Every Tuesday brought a score of poor sad mission. Mr. S. Balle here and knows 75 per cent Canadian sailors, so he is identifi many of the bodies Caruthers' crew. The bodies Broons and Dodson of the Wexford have been sent to wood, and that of young G follow. Sailors yesterday hope of recovering the bodies Cameron, the young captain Wexford. "He would stie probably go down without server," said a friend of the Crown Attorney Charles conducted the inquest held and the jury were: J. J. foreman, W. F. Jennings, John, Harry Salkeld, Robert George Andrews, Robt. M. Christopher Johnston, all of township.