

COURIER COMICS

Quick to Go. Doctor—You are as sound as a dollar. Patient—I hope I last longer than one, doctor.

Petticoats And Frills. "What's the objection to petticoat government?" "Some people appear to be afraid it will lead to too many frills."

A Compromise. A vacationist just returned, relates having overheard this bit of bucolic dickerer: "Hiram, when are you going to pay me them eight dollars for pasturing your heifer?" "I've had her now for about ten weeks."

"Why, Sam, the critter ain't worth more'n ten dollars." "Well, s'posin' I keep her for what you owe me?" "Not by a jugful! Tell you what I'll do, though—keep her two weeks more an' you kin have her."

Her Reasoning. Settlement Worker—Does your husband have steady work? Poor Woman—I think so, mum; at least, he's never out of the workhouse more than a week at a time.

Real Patriotism. "My wife has decided to buy a Victory Bond instead of a new gown." "Fine. Greater love hath no woman than this, that she will give up a new gown for any cause whatsoever."

Everybody Accommodated. Tommy—(just off train, with considerable luggage)—"Cabby, how much is it for me to Litchford?" Cabby—"Two shillings, sir."

Tommy—"How much for my luggage?" Cabby—"Free, sir."

Tommy—"Take the luggage, I'll walk."

One Casualty. Following a night skirmish, a Tommy appeared at a field dressing station. "Oh, a bullet in the leg," he declared.

"Where?" asked the doctor. "That's the funny thing about it," said the soldier. "I don't feel it, and I can't find it, and I walked all the way here, but my leg is all blood from the hip down."

"Come into the light," commanded the doctor. Investigation disclosed a punctured and empty canteen. The water had seeped down the soldier's breeches and he had decided that it was blood.

The Hurst Tire. Uncle Bill, hearing an explosion in the immediate neighborhood, said to his small nephew, sitting in the automobile beside him: "Get out Jimmy, and look at the tire, and see if it is flat."

"It looks pretty good," said Jimmy upon inspection. "It's only flat on the bottom side."

Great Stunt. "You seem fascinated." "I was watching that mule twitch his ears." "Eh?" "If I could do that, what a comedian I'd be."

NEW ROUTE TO WESTERN CANADA. On your next trip to Western Canada why not travel over a new route, using two famous trains on your journey and traversing some of the most interesting territory in the Dominion? The International Limited of the Grand Trunk will carry you from Montreal to Toronto, where another famous train, The National, starts on its west-bound flight to Winnipeg. The National is a through train which leaves Toronto at 8.35 p.m. on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. I.O.D.E. PASSED RESOLUTION OF THANKSGIVING

Brant Chapter Expressed to Almighty at Ending of World War

CHAPTER MET MONDAY

Subscribed $50.00 Toward Fund for Families of Influenza Victims

The November meeting of the Brant Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, was held in the club room of the Y. W. C. A. on Monday, Nov. 18th, the regent, Mrs. Gordon Dunlop, presiding.

On the invitation of the Regent, Rev. Messrs. Woodside and Jenkins were asked to conduct the opening exercises. Mr. Woodside was unavoidably absent. Mr. Jenkins prayer and address was in the form of a thanksgiving for the return of peace to the world.

After the reading and confirming of the minutes, the treasurer, Mrs. Jordan, gave her financial statement. It showed the balance of $150.85. A further report showed the members had filed and forwarded 78 Christmas stockings.

Rev. Mr. Jenkins called the attention of the members to a campaign to be conducted this first of next week to provide a fund to care for the families in the city who have suffered in the recent epidemic. The Chapter pledged its support in this laudable enterprise, and voted $50 towards the fund.

An appeal from the Navy League at Halifax was splendidly supported in this connection the Regent is giving the $15 prize which was won by her car in the Victory Loan parade. This amount will be supplemented sufficiently to fill 10 bags for our gallant sailors.

Mrs. Gordon Smith introduced the following resolution, which was adopted: "Whereas it has pleased Almighty God to bring a glorious victory to our arms and navy."

And whereas many of our members have freely and gladly sent their husbands and sons to uphold the honor of the British Empire."

And whereas many of them have paid the supreme sacrifice in order that liberty, justice and righteousness might prevail."

And whereas the wonderful blessings of peace have, after four long years, come to us again."

Therefore, we, the members of the I. O. D. E. at our regular meeting, November 18th, 1918, do humbly express our thankfulness to God that He in His infinite goodness and mercy has once more granted peace to reign on the earth. And we again tender our loving sympathy to those of our chapter who have lost their dear ones through this war. Their noble sacrifice has not been in vain."

Mr. Smith, of Kitchener, was present in connection with the proposed series of entertainments to be given by the Legion Bureau under patronage of the chapter.

The singing of the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close.

MOONEY MUST DIE ON DECEMBER 13

Supreme Court of U. S. Refuses to Review Case of Labor Leader

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The Supreme Court refused today to review the case of Thomas J. Mooney, labor leader, under sentence to die December 13, for murder in connection with a bomb explosion two years ago in San Francisco. Mooney's counsel appealed to the Supreme Court after a long fight in California to appeal decisions of the state courts.

In asking the Supreme Court to review his case, Mooney charged that his conviction had been obtained through fraud on the part of the district attorney, who had used perjured testimony. This fraud was not discovered, he claimed, until after his conviction, but efforts to obtain a new trial failed.

The case has attracted country-wide attention. In response to appeals for his influence, President Wilson twice has telegraphed the governor of California suggesting that clemency be granted.

COST OF LIVING STILL AVIATING

Prices Continue to Ascend During Last Month of the War

LABOR DEPT. REPORTS

By Courier Leased Wire. During October, the last full month of the war period, the cost of living in Canada was still ascending, according to figures compiled by the Labor Department at Ottawa. This statement applies both to the index number of wholesale prices, which rose approximately four points as compared with September and the weekly budget of staple foods. This budget averaged $13.54 in some 60 cities as compared with $13.31 in September and $11.81 in October, 1917. The retail price of meats was slightly lower than in September, but eggs, milk and butter were higher.

The department reports that the loss of time on account of industrial disputes amount to 65,969 working days. This was less than in September, but greater than in October, 1917. The percentage of unemployment among trade unions was less than one per cent on October 1, but this condition was disturbed by the influenza epidemic.

POPE AFFIRMS HIS SATISFACTION

Expresses Pleasure at Solution of Austro-Italian Territorial Problems

Rome, Nov. 17. The Osservatore Romano, the official Vatican organ, today prints a letter from Pope Benedict to Cardinal Caspari, the papal secretary of state in which the pontiff says that after the recent happy success of the Italian armistice of the Apostolic See there were efforts made to excite in the Italian public mind the belief that the Pope had experienced some regrets over the victory. The letter points out that in a papal letter of the first of August, 1917, and on other occasions, we have expressed repeated wishes that the territorial questions between Austria and Italy receive a solution conformable to the just aspirations of the people, and recently we have given instructions to the nuncio to Vienna to establish friendly relations with the different nationalities of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, which are now constituted independent states."

CLIP THIS AND PIN ON WIFE'S DRESSER

Warns women against cutting corners and says they lift right out.

Because style decrees that women crowd and buckle up their tender toes in high heel footwear they suffer from corns, then they cut and trim at these painful pests which merely makes the corn grow hard. This suicidal habit may cause lockjaw and women are warned to stop it.

A few drops of a drug called freezone applied directly upon a sore corn gives quick relief and soon the entire corn, root and all lifts out without pain. Ask the drug store man for a quarter of an ounce of freezone, which costs very little, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. This drug is gummy, but it dries in a moment and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

By Courier Leased Wire. London, Nov. 16.—(Delayed)—Congratulatory messages have passed between Admiral Sims, commander of the naval forces in European waters and Vice-Admiral Wemyss, British first sea lord.

It is a fact patent to all the world that the defeat of Germany in a large part was accomplished by the power of the British navy," said Admiral Sims.

Vice-Admiral Wemyss replying wrote as follows: "We recognize with feelings of gratitude the debt we owe the United States navy for its whole-hearted support during the past 18 months, not only in the anti-submarine campaign and the intensive mine laying program, but also in sending its battle squadrons to reinforce the grand fleet."

"We do not forget that your destroyers came to our assistance at a moment when our small craft were feeling the severe strain of three years of continuous warfare. We admire the singleness of purpose and approach to the full the loyal way in which you have worked with us throughout."

"The close co-operation between our two services has, I venture to think, been one of the outstanding features of the war. Future generations in both navies will always remember their predecessors who worked shoulder to shoulder during these momentous times to uphold right and justice."

From Field Marshal Haig, Nov. 13: "I am greatly touched by the kind message you have been good enough to send to us.
