BROCKVILLE'S GREATEST STORE

GRAND DISPLAY OF NEW FALL GOODS FOR FAIR WEEK

Visitors to the Brockville Fair next week are cordially invited to call at the big store and inspect the immense displays of Fall Merchandise. Just received from the best market of the world.

Our Mr. R. L. Wright has just returned from a seven weeks buying tour of the European manufacturing centres and his purchases await your inspection.

We buy direct of the makers and save the middlemen's profits and are in a position to do as well for you, or better, than any mail order house.

Brockville's
Great Fair
This Year

The Brockville Fair will be a record breaker this year. The directors have taken a big chance and put on the most expensive and elaborate programme ever attempted here. Don't miss the Fair. Each day is equally good.

Sept. 3, 4, 5 & 6

New Fall Dress Fabrics

New Silks and Velvets

New Suits and Coats

New Millinery

Don't hesitate to make the big store your headquarters when in town. We'll take care of bundles, wraps etc. and deliver anything to the train you may wish.

Local Items

A woman was added to the ranks of Brockville's Indian list last week.

Miss Jennie Doolan was last week a guest of Miss Georgina Mitchell of Frankville.

Mrs Wm Bryan of Long Point was a guest at the home of her brother Wm Doolan and family last week.

Mrs McCordic and daughter Ethel of Forest were guests last week of Mr and Mrs W. F. Earl at Sunnyside.

A dangerous hole has developed in the roadbed at the west end of Main street and it should receive attention at once.

All committees in connection with Athen's Labor Day celebration are requested to meet at race course at 1 p.m. on Saturday.

Miss Addie Hunt, accompanied by her little niece, Florence Williams, spent last week in Toronto and is now visiting Mrs Hudgins at Selby.

The Earl Construction Company this week received from Gaspé a telegram ordering a hundred-light generator to be used for hotel lighting.

Miss Bessie Rowson, Athens, and Mr Wilfred Hughes, Montreal, spent a few days last week at Charleston Lake, the guests of Miss Nellie Earl, Sunnyside, Charleston.

On Sunday next Epworth League Rally Day services will be conducted in the Methodist church. The pastor will give a rallying appeal in the morning and in the evening Rev. Dr. Giles of East Orange, N.J., will conduct the evening service.

Miss Lizzie Doolan, who has been spending the summer vacation at her home here, returned last week to the Canadian West where she has been engaged as teacher in Form III of Bassano public school.

Mrs Annie S. Jamieson of Famosa, Japan, will give an address in the Methodist church on Thursday evening, Sept. 5th. Subject: "A Message of the Beautiful Island." She will have on exhibition foreign costumes, idols, and pictures. All are cordially invited.

Robert Wright & Co., the big Brockville Department Store, are announcing a big exhibition of new fall merchandise for next week, during the Brockville Fair, Sept. 3, 4, 5 and 6. The immense purchases of their foreign buyer, Mr R. L. Wright, who has just returned from Europe, are now on display, and a visit to the big store is really worth while.

Another pleasure is to be added to the joys of Labor Day in Athens. Under the auspices of Athens Women's Institute, Mrs Alex Fraser of Ottawa, assisted by her daughter, Miss Vera, will give an entertainment in the town hall, Athens, on the evening of Labor Day. Musical numbers by Miss Jessie Taplin, Mus. Bach., and other artists. Tickets, 25c; reserved seats, 35c.

Visitors in Athens on Labor Day, Sept. 2, will see the very best that is to be seen in baseball in a championship game between Lyndhurst and Westport teams, a keenly contested game. A battle royal will also take place in football, when The Wanderers of Brockville and The Dreadnaughts of McIntosh-Mills will try conclusions. These two most interesting events are billed to take place during the progress of 'The Musical Drive,' which commences promptly at ten o'clock a.m.

Seriously Injured

Mr Robert McBratney, an aged resident of Glen Elle, met with a serious mishap at noon on Tuesday. He was sitting in his wagon, waiting for a grist to be loaded at the Parish warehouse, when the whistle blew for 12 o'clock. The horse sprang forward, turned the corner of the building sharply and dashed through the gate-way leading to the race track. The wagon struck the fence and Mr. McBratney was thrown out. The buggy and harness were badly wrecked, but the horse escaped without injury. Mr McBratney had his shoulder broken and was otherwise injured. Dr Harte responded promptly to a call and had him conveyed to his surgery where his injuries were dressed.

Market Price

The Recorder gives the following figures as ruling on Brockville market on Saturday last.

Butter—28c, 30c, per pound.
Eggs—25c, 28c, per dozen.
Potatoes—60c per bushel.

A Large and Exclusive Showing of New Suits and Coats

We are showing about two hundred new Suits and Coats. The styles were not determined until a few days ago, at the convention held in New York. You will notice a big change in Suits and Mantles, the suit coat much longer, the skirt slightly fuller, velvets and braids predominate as trimmings. Serge will be the most popular material. The prices will start at $10.00 and up to $35.00.

THE BROCKVILLE FAIR

A Great Show Promised—Special Amusements for the Entertainment of the Crowds—Thrilling Airship Flights

Brockville never does anything by halves, and this year many of its best business men have taken hold of the fair with a view to making it the best in the history of the Society. Thousands of dollars are being spent to promote this object, and there can be no doubt that given good weather it will be an event worth travelling a long distance to see.

The entries already made in the agricultural, cattle, and horse show sections are greater than ever before, and these are being daily added to, to an extent that promises to tax the capacity of the buildings and show grounds.

Nowadays, no fair is considered a success unless it also furnishes abundance of amusements for entertainment of the crowds visiting it. In this connection the directors anticipate, from entries already received, the best races seen in Eastern Ontario in many a year. Coupled with this will be the thrilling aeroplane flights by Hems trough, in his Curtiss airship. This aviator has made a great reputation for feats of daring, and as this feature is a new one in this section, it will no doubt attract great crowds. There will be also many other amusements for the entertainment of visitors. Special rates will be given on the B.W. & N. R. every day of the fair—and every day will be worth a visit.

Mrs A. E. Donovan and Miss Helen Donovan have returned to Toronto after an extended tour of ten weeks in Western Canada which they greatly enjoyed. They visited the leading towns in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia and went as far south as Seattle.
