CHURCH - CHIMES

International Bible Lesson for To

Golden Text-"The hand of the Lor was with them and a great numbelieved and turned to the Lord."

The first Christian Church

The first Christian Church was gathered in Jerusalem, composed of converted Jews; the second, composed mostly of Gentiles, was gathered at Antioch, one of the largest cities of the Roman Empire. Persecution promoted an irregular lay evangelism, which rapidly spread the gospel, God accompanying His witnesses and His word with converting power. He is using the same religious bigotry today on behalf of the Doukohobors, Jews. Finlanders, Armenians, driven to us by Russia and Turkey, not to mention Chinese and Japs, who come to us to learn a more excellent way. to us to learn a more excellent way The mother church at Jerusalem ends Barnabus, who, seeing the of God, rejoices, and, with Paul, one year, instructs and confirms roung converts who were first ca aristians at Antioch, A world-wide mine, but a type of the soul famine r the true God, and as in heath tor the true God, and as in heat and a lands to-day, the hands of loving missionaries are ready to minister to body and soul. Verse 29—Let us do now as they did then send them relief according to our ability. The Lord veth a cheerful giver.

voys. We are to meet, if possible, that very able General, Delarey, and his veterans. We heard of the dis-aster that befel General Methuen. We hope to pay the Boers back. I may say on our journey to Klerks-dorp we made part of the trip by rail; not by Pullman cars I can as-sure you. Our wagons and saddles, etc., were put in coal cars. We were perched on top. We enjoyed the ride very much. We passed through Kaffir villages and made a stop at one. The villages and made a stop at one. The women and children, very scantily clad, came running out to meet us, begging for scoof, otherwise hard tack. I saw the spot where General Methuen was wounded, was also in the hospital where he lays. On our journey here we passed many places of interest, historically and otherwise, over the road where the gold fields are. Krugersdorp, and also close to of interest, historically and otherwise, are, Krugersdorp, and also close to the spot where Dr. Jamieson and his party surrendered. I have sent home a leaf from a tree that grows on Majuba Hill, also a brass button given me as a keepsake by one of the Queensland Imperial Bushmen. The button has the raised letters Q. I. B. upon it. By the time you hear from me again something will have happened. We hear that the Boers, under General Delarey, are only 20 miles away. I hope when the trying moment comes to keep cool and collected so that I may prove to the enemy that I am a worthy son of Canada, a true cub of the lion; such is the spirit that fills the hearts of is the spirit that fills the hearts of the 2nd C. BOY'S COMPOSITION ON BEANS.

There are white beaus, might have beens, has beens and human bein's. Some of these is good to eat others aren't good for nothing except to eat. This is specially true of the has beens. The white beans are planted, cultivated, and threshed. The human bein' is threshed and cultivated. If this treatment is no good the human bein' becomes a might have been and the sooner he is planted the better. Moral—As with beans so it is in other things, it's a poor rule that won't work backwards.

SETTING THE JUDGE RIGHT. (Canadian Law Review.)

A middle-aged darky was in the po-ice court at Harrisburg recently on charge of larceny, chickens being he articles of value he was accused f purloining. When placed on the tand the judge said:

"You are the defendant, are you not?"

"No, sah," replied Sam.

"Not the defendant?" exclaimed his honor. "Then who is the defendant, and who are you?"

"Dat's de defendant," said Sam, pointing to his attorney. "Tse de gentleman dat stole the chickens."

These Reduced Suits

For men and boys. Not a man within reach of the store who cannot profit by these offerings. Not a mother in all the district roundabout who cannot save good money by stocking her boys from the suits that are going out in our liquidation

It's a time when prices generally are tilting upwards. Staple foodstuffs are on the rise, rents, and in fact most necessary expenditures show a tendency to increase. Wages are good, but that very fact includes good stiff prices for manufactured articles. Genuine bargains in articles of real value were never more worthy of attention than at this time.

And back of the bargains stands the regular priced stock -the splendid new spring garments that represent the crest of our fourteen years clothing achievements.
