Local and Provincial.

PERSONAL.—Mr G. B. Daken, formerly of the Windsor Courier is spending a few days in Wolfville. IMPROVEMENT.—The bridge on the Gaspercau road, near Chas. A. Colwell's, has been repaired and is now in a safe condition. Any person having a second-hand "White's Latin Lexicon," in good order, to dispose of, may find a purchaser by applying at this office. ST. JOHN'S (EPISCOPAL) CHURCH.—Services on Sunday next at 11 a.m., and 7 p.m. Services will be conducted by Mr. Fullerton, of Kings College. SEND YOUR NAME.—We cannot publish communications of any kind without having the name of the writer in confidence. News items have reached us this week which we are unable to publish for this reason. STEAMER CHANGES.—The day of sailing of the steamer "New Brunswick," from Annapolis for Boston, has been changed from Tuesday to Thursday, and that of the "Secret" from Annapolis for St. John, from Monday to Tuesday. We are requested by Mr. Mumford, of the W. & A. R., to give the above notice. STRAYED.—I have at my stable a colt about 3 yrs old, dark spotted, white dash on nose, dark mane and tail, very badly cut on both hind legs and off forward leg. Supposed to be from the Wickwire dyke. No brand. The owner can have the same by proving property and paying expenses. A. F. MCKEN, Wolfville, Oct. 20th. TEA MEETING.—The ladies of St. John's (Episcopal) church are making preparations for having another of their popular tea-meetings. It will be held in Witter's Hall and will take place on Thursday, November 4th. A side-shaking farce will be one of the attractions of the evening. From the good time expressed by all those who were present last year we predict a very enjoyable affair. A VALUABLE INVENTION.—The buggy that was awarded the first prize at the Dominion-Quebec provincial exhibition at Sherbrooke, Quebec, was ornamented with the improved Concord axle. This axle together with the adjustable box attachment is undoubtedly the greatest acquisition to carriage building known for many years, consequently should receive attention from owners as well as builders of vehicles of any description. The above improvements are favorably and well known already. Address A. F. Miles, Stanstead, Que. for cuts, circulars, etc. THE CANTATA.—The Cantata, "The Flower Queen," which was presented to the Wolfville public in College Hall, on Friday evening last, and repeated on Tuesday evening of this week, was a grand success and reflected great credit on the young ladies who took part as well as on Miss Hitchens, teacher of vocal music at the Seminary, who so ably planned and carried out the arrangements. The young ladies all looked charming and took their parts magnificently. Mr. Shaw, teacher of elocution at the College, took the part of the reciter and played his part in a highly creditable manner. A number of many it would not be fair for us to particularize the ladies, but we may say that Miss Hattie Harris personified the queen of flowers admirably and the singing of all was as good as could be desired. The programme was interspersed with some fine violin music—Mr. Margeson manipulating the bow on Friday evening and Dr. Bowles on Tuesday evening. Mr. Shaw also gave some excellent readings and received encore after encore. We hope to have the pleasure of listening to him many times during the coming winter. The deepest thanks is due to Miss Hitchens for the great amount of trouble she has taken to present us with such a fine musical feast. We understand that there is a prospect of "The Flower Queen" being reproduced in some of the neighboring towns in the near future. BORN. BALCOM.—At Hantsport, Oct. 7th, the wife of W. C. Balcom, Esq., of a daughter. Married. WALTON—MESSENGER.—At Grand Pre, on Thursday, October 14th, by Rev. T. A. Higgins, D. D., Jacob Walton, Esq., of Canard, Cornwallis, and Jessie, daughter of Michael Messenger, Esq., formerly of Falmouth. REDDEN—TUPPER.—At Minneapolis, U. S., on the 27th Sep., by Rev. P. Striker, D. D., Mr. Ernest Redden, of Chester, and Miss Rosie E. Tupper, of Windsor. ALLISON—MURPHY.—At the Methodist parsonage, Windsor, on the 18th inst., by Rev. J. A. Rogers, Mr. William Allison and Miss Annie Murphy, both of Windsor. BISHOP—ARNOLD.—At Wolfville, Sep. 8th, by Rev. Dr. Higgins, Mr. Eison Bishop, of Highbury, and Miss Lysa Arnold, of Woodville. Died. WALLACE.—At Charlottetown, Mass., Oct. 2d, of heart disease, Robert Wallace, Esq., aged 67, eldest brother of W. J. Wallace, Esq., of Canaan. BURBIDGE.—At Wolfville, Oct. 13, John Wilbert, infant son of Jas. Burbidge, aged 8 mos. CALBOUR.—At Moncton, on the 15th October, Fred Wallace, eldest son of N. C. and Martha Calhoun, aged 20 years. CURRY.—At Horton Landing, Oct. 12th, infant son of F. W. Curry, aged 2 mos and 2 days.
