

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., NOV. 4, 1887

Our Shipping Facilities.

In our issue of October 7th, we called attention to the apple interest of the three counties—Annapolis, King's, and Hants. We now desire to refer to the products of King's with special reference to the shipping privileges bordering upon the Basin of Minas.

The "Star of Bethlehem."

I have recently heard from several sources that a very bright star in the south-eastern heavens is attracting considerable attention in the early morning, and it seems to be the general belief that this bright object is the celebrated "Star of Bethlehem," about which the papers had so much to say some months ago.

Port Williams Items.

On Wednesday evening, the 26th ult., the ladies of the Baptist church held a very successful tea meeting and fancy sale. Amount realized, over $80. Proceeds to be appropriated to painting the church.

The taxpayers are taking steps to repair and enlarge the schoolhouse in this section. A move made in no way such as the present one is altogether unsuitable for the requirements of the section.

Something to Begin On.

THIRD ARTICLE.

In my last I promised briefly to examine a few of the statements and positions found in the sermon of Canon Brock on Infant Baptism and Regeneration.

THE BEE HIVE!

There is a tide in the affairs of man, which taken at the flood leads on to fortune.—This is not a mere poet's dream, but applies in a practical manner to commercial enterprises of all kinds.

the cause of education, temperance, Sabbath-schools, missions, and civil and religious liberty. All this is recorded in glowing letters on the page of history, as Canon Brock knows very well; at least we cannot suppose him ignorant of it.

and to give an idea of our position to give satisfaction, we beg to quote from the Western Chronicle of the 22d just as follows:—

"New Store.—We gave notice in Saturday's issue of the opening of the large store, formerly occupied by Jas. R. Blanchard, now occupied by S. E. Hue, with the largest Stock of (Fresh) Dry Goods, Crockeryware, Glassware and Groceries.

The doors of this large shop were opened about 10 o'clock, and were filled all day with a large number of customers, and the number of desirable orders he has had from outside villages, makes him quite confident that with small profits, and quick sales, he will soon impress the residents of this town, and also the surrounding neighborhood, that his large Stock has been bought in the best Markets. He will ask that those wishing to purchase New and Fresh Goods, would give him a call before purchasing elsewhere, as he and his staff will be pleased to show goods, &c. Come one, come all! Having made a personal inspection we recommend our new merchant, S. E. Hue."

We add a few of our prices (but much prefer receiving a call from all intending purchasers of goods, so that they can better judge for themselves),
