By thine own soul's law learn to love, And if men thwart thee take no heed, And if men hate thee have no care; Sing thou thy song and do thy deed, Hope thou thy hope and pray thy prayer, And claim no crown they will not give, Nor bays they grudge thee for thy hair.

Keep thou thy soul sworn steadfast oath, And to thy heart be true thy heart; What thy soul teaches learn to know, And play out thine appointed part, And thou shall reap as thou shalt sow, Nor help nor hinder in thy growth, To thy full stature thou shall grow.

Fix on the future's goal thy face,
And let thy feet be lured to stray.
No whither, but be swift to run,
And nowhere tarry by the way.
Until at last the end is won,
And thou may'st look back from thy p'ace
And see thy long day's journey done.
