THE ART EXHIBITION

(Crowded out of last issue)

The Art and Household Science Exhibition at the Ladies' Seminary was well worth a visit. The Misses Annie L. Ricker, of Glenwood, N. S. and Jean R. Godfrey, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., both graduates of this year's Art Course, exhibited works in oils, water-colors, charcoal, designs, etc., which were greatly admired. Other students also exhibited a variety of pencil drawings, as well as some work in water-color and charcoal. The Basketry Exhibits consisted of a choice selection of baskets and trays in the new rope-work; paper flowers, trays and baskets of reed also attracted attention. A few exhibits of special merit were shown by Miss Thompson, the Art teacher, including portraits in pastel, landscapes in water-color and several etchings.

In the Household Science Department members of the Seminary Junior Class and the Public School Grades IX and X pupils showed numerous specimens of meritorious hand sewing, mostly blouses, and the more advanced dressmaking work of the Senior Sems, came in for much deserving praise.

PRETTY SACKVILLE WEDDING

SACKVILLE, N. B. May 25—A pretty nuptial event took place at 6.30 o'clock this evening in the Sackville Methodist Church when Miss Gladys Allison Borden, daughter of Dr. B. C. Borden (President of Mount Allison University) and Mrs. Borden was united in marriage to W. Roy Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Willard Smith, of St. John. The church which was filled with interested spectators was prettily decorated with potted plants and greenery. As the bridal party entered the church a solo "O perfect Love" was rendered by Miss McElhiney.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. M. Ryan pastor of Sackville Methodist Church, assisted by Prof. Desbarres of Mount Allison University. Mrs. H. P. Woodworth presided at the organ, and rendered the wedding marches in an effective manner. The bride, who was given away by her father was charmingly dressed in white canton crepe with a white tulle train and carried a bouquet of white roses and pink sweet peas. Miss Gertrude Borden, cousin of the bride who acted as bridesmaid was dressed in pink organdie, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

Dr. Winthrop Bell of Halifax acted as best man, and little Miss Frances Read made a dainty flower girl dressed in white and pink organdie. She carried a basket of forget-me-nots and roses from which she strewed flowers in the pathway of the bride and groom.

Master Herbert Read acted as train bearer. The ushers were Herbert Read, W. T. Wood, Allen Tait and Robert Black. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the brides' parents at which a large number of guests were present. Amid congratulations and best wishes from a host of friends Mr. and Mrs. Smith left by auto for the Annapolis Valley, where they will reside. The bride's going away suit was of mignonette cloth, with hat to match.

A TIME FOR MODERATION

"I believe in free speech!" exclaimed the vociferous man.
"So do I," exclaimed Uncle Bill Botletop; "so do I. But in one respect free speech reminds me of the free lunch in the old days. You hate to see a man making a pig of himself just because something's free."—Washington Star.

"Oh, I'm so glad my husband is a big fat man!" sighed Mrs. Uppa Gainst, soulfully.
"Horrors!" exclaimed the slim man's wife. "How can you!"

"I know, my dear," came back the other, "but just think, each leg of his old trousers will make an overcoat for one of the twins this winter."

It is usually the blunt man who says the sharpest things.

When Baby Is Ill

When the baby is ill; when he cries a great deal and no amount of attention or petting makes him happy. Baby's Own Tablets should be given him without delay. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach and thus drive out constipation and break up colds and simple fevers and make teething easy. Concerning them Mrs. Desire Theberge, Trois Pistols, Que. writes: "I am well satisfied with my use of Baby's Own Tablets. I have found them a great benefit to my baby when he was suffering from constipation and I can strongly recommend them to other mothers." The Tablets are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
