NEW SENATORS APPOINTED.

New Brunswick and Ontario Vacancies Filled Saturday.

On Jan. 14—Four new senators were appointed at Saturday's cabinet meeting. The two New Brunswick vacancies went to Hon. John Costigan and Daniel Gilmour. The latter was a candidate for parliament in Charlotte county at the last general election and was defeated. He is a son of the late A. H. Gilmour, who for five terms from 1874 represented Charlotte in the house of commons and was afterwards appointed to the senate.

The two Ontario vacancies were filled by the appointment of Hon. Geo. W. Ross, ex-premier of the province and Robert Beith, who represented West Durham in the house of commons for the greater part of three terms. He succeeded the Hon. Edward Blake in the representation of the constituency in 1904.

There are two vacancies in the senate for Nova Scotia. They have not yet been filled. It is said that one of the positions will go to Hon. A. H. Comeau, a member of the Murray government without portfolio.

H. Price Webber's Comedy, "The Gold King," took finely here Saturday night. There was a good house, and intense interest was manifested till the close. Mr. Webber, as Dan McGinty, kept the audience in excellent humor, and Miss Edwina Greyas, as Pug McGinty, was heartily received. The Gold King played his part well; and those who took parts of the villains, Squire Ludlow and Mr. Flett, played to perfection, and were well supported by the rest of the troupe. The company will be welcomed back on the 1st of next month.
