Publishers Organize For Mutual Protection

North Shore District Press Association Formed at Chatham on Monday

A meeting of the Newspaper publishers of the North Shore was held in Chatham yesterday afternoon to consider the Newspaper situation, which is now becoming a serious problem to the weekly publishers. The recent ruling of the Paper Controller which increases the price 4 1/2 cents per hundred pounds and forbids its use for posters was discussed at length as was the question of the likelihood of the demand being made by the Government that all subscriptions must be paid in advance. All of these rulings were considered most unfair to the small publishers and it likely that strong representation will be made to have them repealed.

Mr. E. Roy Sayles publisher of the Times Port Elgin Int and Secretary of the Bruce District Press Association was present and gave an outline of the work being carried on in Ontario.

It was decided for Mutual protection to form a North Shore District Press Association and the following officers were elected:

President—J. Fred Benson, Chatham Commercial
Vice-President—H. B. Anslow, Campbellton Graphic
Secty. Treas.—R. A. N. Jarvis, Newcastle Advocate
Those present at the meeting were: J. L. Stewart, Chatham World; J. Fred Benson, Chatham Commercial; G. F. McWilliam, Newcastle Leader; H. B. Anslow, Campbellton Graphic; Fred E.
