CHARLOTTETOWN has had another celebration—this time occasioned by the great news that Lord Roberts bad taken possession of Pretoria—the capital city of the Transval. The news was quickly made known by the ringing of bells, and blowing of steam whistles. It was not long after the news was received till the city was a grand mass of bunting. The children of the different schools, numbering about 1,200 paraded the streets with flags, and marched to the Provincial building, where they sang patrictic songs and cheered for the Late William Conoban of Bay Fortune, P. E. I. aged 51 years.
