Mr and Mrs John Oke entertained number of friends at their residence on Commercial street at a dancing party on Tuesday night of last week, in which an enjoyable time was spent by all. The master of ceremonies was Joseph Healy, assisted by A. Morris and Wm. McCann, the jovial commodore taking a part with the zeal of his boyhood days in several ances, particularly the opera reel.

As the time is drawing near for the annual visit of the assessor, farms in these parts are falling and sinking every minute in value, till after his visit is over. Then when taxes are paid there will be a deeper lamentation as to one psying one dollar more than his neighbor, and it is likely O'Brien may yet hail from the Old Sod to come along and lecture to them on equal rights on the assessing of property. BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—"Civil Service Gazette."
