Prohibition Prize List

The sheets of Penmanship exercise submitted by the hundreds of pupils of the various City schools who were competing for the Prize offered by the St. John's Citizens' Prohibition Committee, have been examined with the following results:

The Prize in the Class of Age 6 was won by Anita Fynn, Centenary Hall School, with 90 p.c. of the total mark.

In the Class of Age 7, Emma Grimes, Meth. College, 90 p.c.
Class 8.—Alma Hudson, Meth. Col.; Robert Morey, Torbay High School; Emily Jardine, Meth. Col.; and Flora Grimes, Meth. Col., all obtained a full mark and their sheets will be further examined to decide as to which of these competitors should receive the Prize.

Class of Age 9.—Robt. Lacey, Torbay High School; M. Drover, Meth. Col.; and Wilfred Peters, Meth. Col., all obtained a 90 p.c. mark.

Class of Age 10.—Sadie Taylor, Parade Street School and Gladys Bennett, Meth. Col., both obtained a full mark.

In connection with the Prize Essay Competition, in view of the many competitors it was found impossible to do more than examine the efforts submitted by pupils of the City schools Age 14 and over. The pupils named in the following list obtained full mark:

A. Johnson (15) and Ralph H. LeMessurier (17). Bishop Feild Col. Jeanette Crosbie (15) and Sadie Kean (14). Methodist College.

John Goss (14), Torbay High Sch. *The Essays submitted in the other three classes will be examined and the results announced during the present week.

Needs Attention.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—I had the pleasure of visiting one of the Fire Stations in this city a few days ago, and was kindly received by the men who showed me the fire fighting outfit and explained their workings in detail. Everything at the station seemed to be in good order, and every man I feel sure knew the business from A to Z. I am sorry that what I say of the fire fighting machinery I cannot repeat regarding the station itself. It needs a cleaning and by cleaning I mean a painting-up. The smell in the station is anything but agreeable and cannot but be detrimental to the health of the firemen. This odour I believe is accounted for by the close proximity of the horses to the apartment where the men have to be all day; and considering that there is plenty room to the rear of the station on which stables could be erected, I feel sure that after the attention of the Inspector of Public Buildings is "drawn to the matter" this evil will be attended to. How the physician attending the men allowed the present smell in the station to continue, is something I cannot understand. The sleeping apartments of the men is like nothing. Cheerless from the word go. Bare walls, bare floor, dingy ceiling and uninviting beds for the men to sleep on. Whoever is Boss of this Department should take a trip to Boston or even Halifax and "compare dates." It wouldn't cost the price of a good horse to put this Station in the pink of condition. And it should be done too, for you people hold your firemen in the highest regard, and after all, it is the People's money that will foot the Bill.
Yours,
VISITOR.

Hr. Grace Notes.

Rev. A. A. Holmes made a very brilliant appeal to his congregation on Sunday night, in the interest of total prohibition.

Word comes from Sydney that employment is very brisk there just now, consequently a large number of young men left this town and Carbonara by yesterday's train for that place.

Through a letter received yesterday from Mrs. Captain Ellis, of Plymouth, we learn that she had the pleasure of receiving a letter and is shortly expecting a visit as well from a Harbor Gracian, now with the Canadian forces in France. It is Capt. D. C. Sheppard, son of Mr. J. C. Sheppard, now of St. John's. It came about through the Telegram containing our reference to Mrs. Ellis being sent to Capt. Sheppard by his parents possibly. Mrs. Ellis expressed the great pleasure it was to her to hear from or meet one of our brave lads who are doing so much for the grandest flag that ever waved—the Union Jack of Old England and Newfoundland as well.

Death entered the home of the Tobin family yesterday and took from it the mother—Mrs. Margaret Tobin, widow of the late Michael Tobin, carpenter. The deceased had only been ill a few days, but her health had been somewhat undermined by the care of her little boy who has been hovering between life and death for some time with typhoid fever. The mother's love was so great that in her anxiety for her little boy she was forgetful of her own health. To the sorrowing family we extend our sympathy. Mrs. Tobin was a Miss Scully before her marriage.

There is a great need in this district for a Meat Inspector. At this time of the year people are constantly bringing meat in town to sell, but our attention has been drawn on several occasions to the doubtful quality of this food. St. John's is very well protected in this respect, then why not have a meat and slaughterhouse inspector for this district? There is plenty of work for one or more.
