

DEDICATION OF NEW ORGAN

at Cochrane St. Centennial Methodist Church.

Yesterday will long be remembered by the Methodists of Cochrane Street Church, under a smiling sky and delightful day's weather the new organ which has been recently installed in the church was formally opened and dedicated by special services yesterday. At the morning service the dedication took place, a large and representative congregation being present. The order of service was printed and was embellished with an attractive cut of the church and pastor, and was accompanied with the following statement on its front page:

STATEMENT.

In the fire of January 1914, which destroyed the original Cochrane St. Church, we lost the splendid organ which had been given by the Hon. James S. Pitts, C.M.G. The instrument was insured for $10,000, which, however, did not cover the cost. The Trustees were desirous of installing in the new church an organ equal to that destroyed, which would keep fragrant the memory of him who took such an interest in the church and especially in the musical portion of the services. When the question came to be considered it was found that the increase in wages and prices of materials, by reason of the Great War, put the cost at a figure much above the amount in the hands of the Trustees. Mrs. Pitts generously assumed the additional cost, and thus we have to-day an instrument fully equal to that destroyed.

The builders are Messrs. Harrison & Harrison, of Durham & London, who, in the past 10 years, have built many of the Cathedral organs of England. The instrument consists of three manuals and pedals; the action is tubular pneumatic.

The inscription plate, which was affixed to the original organ, was found in the ruins of the church, sent to England and repaired, and has now been placed in position in the case of the present instrument.

While the congregation remained standing the Trustees of the church came forward to the Communion Rail, and Mr. A. Lindsay on their behalf presented the organ to the Pastor, the Rev. G. J. Bond, LL.D., in the following words:

"Sir—We present unto you the organ lately erected in this Church, that it may be dedicated to the worship and service of Almighty God. The Pastor and the congregation made the Declaration and prayers.

DECLARATION.

Dear Beloved—
Almighty God, in His wise providence, has given power unto men to invent to themselves instruments of music, and skill to use them in heavenly forth his praise. It is meet and right that such instruments, intended for use in the public worship of God, should be specially set apart and dedicated for such purpose. We therefore, this day, dedicate to the honour and glory of God, the organ lately erected in this Church. May it by its sweet and solemn tones, be kindling a spirit of devotion in the hearts of all people, who, now and henceforth, may worship in this Sanctuary; and may the people, taking their part here on earth, in prayer and praise, singing and making melody in their hearts unto the Lord, hereafter be admitted to the Heavenly Temple, and join in the everlasting song of the redeemed.

Let us pray.

O Almighty Father, maker of heaven and earth, Who hast visited the minds of men with the arts upon Thy holy laws, and to make music grow with instruments of music;

O Divine Wisdom, Who hast gifted the minds of men with the arts upon Thy holy laws, and to make music grow with instruments of music;

O Holy Spirit, Author of all beauty and order, Who canst make the power of Nature and Art present devotion; O Blessed Trinity in Unity, source of all power and wisdom and sweetness, accept and bless this instrument of music which we now dedicate to Thee, that it may ever sound in this Thy House in witness of Thy all-pervading Majesty, from which all things of Nature and Art proceed, and to Thy honour and glory, Who dost live and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts.
O God, Who art the Author and Giver of all good things, we thank Thee that Thou hast put it into the hearts of Thy servants, out of the abundance of Thy goodness bestowed upon them, to make this offering for the beauty of Thy service in this Sanctuary. Be pleased to accept their pious service, and give it power to accomplish their desire to Thy honour and glory, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts.

O Thou, Who dost bestow upon men gifts and graces that they may the more perfectly perform Thy purposes in this world, grant to those who shall, from time to time, act as organists in this church, wisdom and reverence, skill and inspiration, that Divine melodies may flow forth from these pipes, linking in Concord and Harmony the hearts of a worshipping people with Thy Divine Will and Thine Infinite Love. Amen.

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts.

Grant, O Lord, we beseech Thee, that all, in Choir or in Congregation, who shall sing Thy praises to the accompaniment of this organ, may worship Thee with perfect devotion of spirit, soul and body; and praising Thee here with undivided heart, may by Thy help, be enabled to lay hold of Thy promises, to accept Thy salvation, to live on earth for Thy glory, and ultimately to sing the New Song in heaven, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts.

Sanctify, O Lord, we beseech Thee, this instrument of music of the Lord made to praise Thee, because Thy mercy endureth forever, and let it be blessed and hallowed in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts.

After the Doxology, Psalm 150 was read responsively, followed by Jackson's Te Deum. The preacher was the Rev. Dr. Bond, whose text was taken from 1 Chronicles 25: 6-8. Subject: "Music in worship." Music says Charles Kingsley is the speech of God. What a wonderful gift it is, the world is full of it. How universal it is. Music speaks directly to our souls. The pipe organ is an important essential, being a king of instruments in leading the praises of God in the services of the church. Let the heart be a great outburst of congregational singing, and let all our hearts respond and let all listen to the voice of God as we sing our beautiful hymns and worship in his sanctuary.

A large and well-trained choir rendered two anthems, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness," and "Hark! hark! the organ loudly peals." An immense congregation filled the church.

Rev. Dr. Jones Begins Series of Sermons.

Rev. Dr. Edgar Jones, Rector of St. Thomas's Parish, who returned from the United States by the express which reached town at 4 p.m. yesterday, occupied the pulpit at last night's service and preached the first of a series of sermons which will be given on each alternate Sunday night; on "The One Gospel and Some Other Gospels." The subject for last night was "The Gospel according to Satan."

The subjects for the sermons to follow are: "The Gospel according to Prussia, England, Certain Lodges, the Sceptic, and the True Gospel of Christ." The preacher in a most impressive and instructive manner dealt last night with the deceitful way in which Satan tempted our Lord, and showed that Satan's method involved a false morality, a false philosophy and a false religion. Coming down to the present day, we find a large number of people preaching all three, subordinating the higher and spiritual powers of the soul to the lower needs of the body (the first temptation); and finding the religion of Satan more suitable to their purposes and aims than that of God (the third temptation). In announcing the events in connection with the church during the coming week, the Rector stated that at the regular weekly meeting of the St. Thomas's Men's Bible Class, Thursday night, he would give an address on the work of William (Billy) Sunday, the world-famous evangelist, whose evangelistic gatherings he attended while on his visit to the United States.

SICKNESS PREVALENT.—La Grippe is very prevalent in the city just now and all the doctors are kept busy. There is also an epidemic of whooping cough among the young folk.

Patriotic Concert at Belleoram.

On Wednesday night the 3rd, a patriotic concert was held in the Orange Hall and repeated on Thursday night the 4th. The Rev. G. S. Templeton acted as Chairman the first night and Mr. McCuish the second. The programme, which consisted of songs, dialogues and recitations, was well arranged and the performers certainly did credit to themselves. The following took part: Misses Flora McCuish, Bertha Dicks, Florrie Keeping, Irene Rose, Julia Lee, Jane Webb, Hannah Cluett and also Frank Cluett and Oscar Jensen. The proceeds which amounted to about $90 will be devoted to the Red Cross. We hope the young ladies will come forward again to help along such noble work.

JACK AND MARIE ROSSLEY IN MILITARY SKETCH.

At Rossley's British Theatre to-night there is a capital programme arranged, first class pictures and military sketch, entitled "The Swanky Soldier," with Jack and Marie Rossley, assisted by the Pantomime Co. A good night's entertainment. On Saturday The Pansy League matinee was a great success. The clever Pantomime Co. also did well. The various animals all worked their bit. Pollywag, the French singing parrot, was a little bashful meeting so many friends all at the same time, though she promises to do better next time. Pansy was in fine working order, and went through her part to the delight of the little ones. The little Misses Davidson, Diana and Daphne put Pansy's babies through their parts, and presented the members of the company with candy. Altogether it was a very enjoyable affair and for a good cause.

Portia Back From the West

POOR FISHERY NEWS.

The S. S. Portia returned from the Westward yesterday. On her way to Bonne Bay she shipped west to Sydney for bunker coal. The weather was comparatively calm during the trip. She brought a full freight and passengers in saloon:—

Messrs. Snelgrove, T. Evis, L. Gorman, A. Evis, M. K. Evis, Adjt. Harding, S. A. H. Burt, J. Hollett, B. Darby, B. Walsh, E. Wagg, M. Duggan, J. D. Burke, W. R. Hagan; Mesdames Jarvis, Power, Gibbons; Misses Long, Harding, Daley, Flemming, Gibbons and 20 second class.

From the officers of the Portia we learn that the winter fishery on the Western Banks is a blank to date, because of continuous stormy weather preventing boats from operating. All along the coast vessels were ready to leave at the various ports between Grand Bank and Burin but few had reached the grounds up to Wednesday last when the Portia passed there.
